Gusty Winds Kick Up Dust Clouds In Kansas, Colorado

By The Associated Press

Snow and freezing rain glazed parts of the Midwest Friday.

Gusty winds up to 55 m.p.h. kicked up clouds of dust in western Kansas, eastern Colorado and portions of the surrounding states.

A storm dropped snow on much of Minnesota, western Wisconsin and northern Iowa. Minneapolis, International Falls and St. Cloud, Minn., had more than an inch of new snow. The storm center was north of the North Dakota border.

Freezing rain fell at the western edge of the snow area along the Minnesota-Dakotas boundaries.

A scattering of light sprinkles or snow flurries peppered the central and northern Appalachians. Light showers dampened the northern Plains and the far Northwest.

Showers Tease, But Don't Please

The weatherman Friday afternoon teased Nebraska with a few drops of much-needed moisture.

Light showers dotted the state. North Platte, Grand Island, Lincoln, Omaha and Sioux City had traces of rain. Norfolk reported .05 of an inch of rain, sleet and snow.

The state is badly in need of a half to one inch of rain.

Strong winds Saturday are expected to keep the weather from being all that can be desired for the last week in November.

Otherwise, forecasters indicated that generally good weather would continue in the state.

Lincolnite Is Badly Hurt In Accident

A 70-year-old Lincoln woman was in poor condition at St. Elizabeth's Hospital early Saturday morning following a car-pedestrian accident at 10th and J Friday evening.

She is Katherine Fushie of 619 So. 11th, who suffered a possible skull fracture, a broken right leg and possible back injuries.

The woman was knocked 12 feet by the impact. Driver of the car was Raymond Loomis of 2828 So. 12th of the U.S. Navy.

Loomis told police that he was blinded by the lights of the oncoming traffic as he was traveling south on 10th St., but applied his brakes as soon as he saw the woman.

Nixon Sued By Heckler

$150,000 Sought For 'Sundry' Lumps

SAN FRANCISCO (INS)—A $150,000 damage suit against Vice President Richard M. Nixon was filed in San Francisco Superior Court Friday by James Heavey, 33, who was seized by secret service men as a heckler at a campaign speech by Nixon in San Mateo, Calif., Oct. 29.

Heavey

The complaint alleges that 12 persons seized Heavey without cause and "there and then battered his person by grasping, pulling and tugging him about the region of his back and arms and neck thereby causing plaintiff to suffer sundry bruises in the region of his back and arms and neck."

The complaint said Heavey also suffered "grave and severe humilation, embarrassment and shame" and asserted the alleged assailants were "the agents, servants and employes" of Vice President Nixon.

The incident happened when a heckler, identified by San Mateo police as Heavey, interrupted Nixon's speech by shouting:

"Tell us the dog story, Dick."

He was surrounded by secret service men who started to hustle him out of the hall when Nixon called to them to stop.

"Bring him back." Nixon said. "I want him to hear what I have to say."

Then, as the heckler stood encircled by the government agents, Nixon said:

"I have traveled in 22 states on this tour and have made 200 talks but this is the first time anyone has had the discourtesy to interrupt a broadcast.

"The Communists and their fellow travelers tried the same tactic in 1950 when I ran for the United States Senate. We beat them in 1950 and we'll beat them again this year."

Girl Hurt As Car Hits Pole

Evelyn Seamark, 16, of 3327 So. 40th, suffered a laceration over the right eye in a one car accident at 48th between Hartley and Gladstone Friday night.

She was treated at St. Elizabeth's Hospital and later released. The girl was riding in a car driven by 16-year-old Robert Barry of 2204 West O, that hit a light pole.

Barry told police that in making a turn he was watching the car behind him in the rear view mirror. Police ticketed him for negligent driving.

20 Murders

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Police said a young man they arrested has confessed to more than 20 killings. He was identified by secret police as Silvestre Flores Saldana. He was armed with a pistol, shotgun and machete.

Flores Saldana readily admitted the killings, giving details, police said. He had operated in the vicinity of Xochimilco, the famed floating gardens not far from the Mexican capital. His victims were all Mexicans.

Will Santa Bring Him A Mommie And Daddy?

Christmas season is approaching. Santa Claus is getting his shop ready. Most kids are starting to think about brand new bikes; dolls that cry and say "Momma." But to this 3-year-old boy whose name is Steve the best Christmas present Santa could possibly bring is something most other children have—a Mommie and a Daddy. Steve is an orphan at the Nebraska Home for Children. The pictures were taken as Steve wistfully took in Santa at his perch on the City Hall lawn. (Star Photos by Bill Ray.)

Four-year-old Chipper Littlejohn of 3011 Ryons only knows that muscular dystrophy means a sick little boy or girl but that was enough for him.

He was the first to call Lincoln firemen who have volunteered to collect for the MD fund and tell them he had five dollars to give.

His mother, Mrs. W. C. Littlejohn, reports that after he called his pledge in, the eager youth waited at the window for two hours for a fireman.

"Time meant nothing to him," his mother said.

"I want to give it to poor little children," Chipper said as he held out the money for fireman Sam Hesser of 3258 Y. The money was from a piggy bank he had been saving.

The youth ran to the door when he saw the fireman approach the home and welcomed the man with a wreath of smiles.

"I never saw a child so excited about giving up his money," fireman Hesser said.

Chipper even had more ambitious plans to help in the drive. He wanted to go around to the neighbors and ask for donations himself.

But mother said no. Chipper had been sick with the flu.

Tough Note Sent To Reds

U.S. Calls For 'Forthwith' Release Of 13 Yankees

HINTED PATIENCE NEAR AN END

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States Friday fired at Red China an unusually tough note demanding release "forthwith" of 13 Americans. It hinted that American patience might be near exhaustion.

The message denounced as "wrongful" the Chinese Communist's condemnation last Tuesday of 11 U. S. airmen and two U. S. civilians to prison terms ranging from four years to life. It scoffed at the Red Chinese charges of espionage as "without foundation."

And it said detention of the men "is in patent violation of the Korean armistice agreement" as well as recognized international rules for treatment of war prisoners and civilians. The 13 had fallen into Communist hands during the Korean War.

The U.S. note said Peiping will be held accountable for redress to the men and their families. It said the United States reserves the right "to claim compensation as may be determined appropriate and to demand the punishment of the Chinese Communist officials responsible."

Hint Is Plain

In implying that American patience is not inexhaustible, the note said:

"The Chinese Communist authorities should bear in mind that the long list of Chinese Communist outrages against American nationals, which the American people have borne with restraint thus far, is significantly extended by the Chinese Communist announcement of Nov. 23."

That announcement told of the Americans being sentenced as spies.

The Red Peiping Radio Friday broadcast what it said were extracts from their trial record. "The U.S. spies admitted having received specialist training in espionage and guerrilla warfare," Peiping said.

Of the two civilians sentenced, Peiping said both confessed they were trained as agents by the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency. The Defense Department has identified them as civilian employes of the Army.

Friday's U.S. note was dispatched by a circuitous route since the United States has never recognized the government of Red China. It was directed to Peiping by way of London, where it was handed the Red Chinese mission by the British Foreign Office.

The State Department released the text of the note after it was learned in London that the British, at U.S. request, were relaying it to the Red Chinese representative there.

This news came on the heels of strong condemnation of the imprisonments in statements by the British government. Even earlier, British U.N. Delegate Anthony Nutting had called the Red Chinese action outrageous and promised, in a luncheon talk at New York, that "you can count on us."

Labeled "Barbarism"

The incident, which America's U.N. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., has labeled "a new act of barbarism," seemed certain to have at least two effects on which the Red Chinese apparently had not counted:

1. Loss of ground in their drive for support of a bid for unseating Nationalist China in the U.N.
2. Weakening of any efforts, such as those in the past by the British, to compromise strong Washington opposition to recognizing the Peiping regime.

American officials said the British were asked also to deliver the stiff U.S. note directly to the Red Chinese government through Humphrey Trevelyan, British charge d'affaires at Peiping.

Astor's Blood Not So Blue, Says Register

NEW YORK (AP)—The Social Register Friday dropped from its exalted pages the name of millionaire John Jacob Astor among others.

One person dropped from the register was William C. Langley, New York investment broker, who promptly labelled the action "as un-American as Communism."

Langley, of Westbury, N. Y., and Aiken, S. C., had married into the entertainment world.

Astor also made marital news this year.

Norwegian Tanker Explodes In Dock

SWANSEA, Wales (AP)—A Norwegian tanker exploded Saturday in the dock area of this South Wales port. There was no immediate report of casualties.

Ike 'Year Late,' Says Irate Mom

VISTA, Calif. (AP) — The mother of one of 13 Americans sentenced to prison on spy charges by Communist China said Friday President Eisenhower's Thanksgiving expression of concern for them was "about a year too late."

Mrs. H. L. Stiter at the same time expressed admiration for Sen. Knowland (R-Calif), Senate majority leader, who has been critical of the administration's policy towards Communist countries. He has urged a blockage of China and severance of diplomatic relations with Russia.

The mother of Air Force Capt. Elmer F. Llewellyn, 29, shot down with the crew of a B29 bomber on a Korean mission in 1952, said she received the President's telegram sent to relatives of the 13 Thursday.

'Form Letter'

"I consider it no more than a form letter and think it is about a year too late," she said in an interview.

Mrs. Stiter said she was one of 83 mothers and wives of captured Americans who went to Washington last April to urge that all prisoners of war be released under Korea truce terms.

"At that time," she said, "President Eisenhower refused to see us. He did, however, return from Augusta, Ga., to speak to women appearing at a Grand Army of the Republic convention in Washington.

"I think our cause was just as important. Our sons and husbands were still living."

Knowland, Mrs Stiter added, "spoke to us and greeted us personally."

VISTA, Calif. (AP) — The mother of one of 13 Americans sentenced to prison on spy charges by Communist China said Friday President Eisenhower's Thanksgiving expression of concern for them was "about a year too late."

Mrs. H. L. Stiter at the same time expressed admiration for Sen. Knowland (R-Calif), Senate majority leader, who has been critical of the administration's policy towards Communist countries. He has urged a blockage of China and severance of diplomatic relations with Russia.

The mother of Air Force Capt. Elmer F. Llewellyn, 29, shot down with the crew of a B29 bomber on a Korean mission in 1952, said she received the President's telegram sent to relatives of the 13 Thursday.

'Form Letter'

"I consider it no more than a form letter and think it is about a year too late," she said in an interview.

Mrs. Stiter said she was one of 83 mothers and wives of captured Americans who went to Washington last April to urge that all prisoners of war be released under Korea truce terms.

"At that time," she said, "President Eisenhower refused to see us. He did, however, return from Augusta, Ga., to speak to women appearing at a Grand Army of the Republic convention in Washington.

"I think our cause was just as important. Our sons and husbands were still living."

Knowland, Mrs. Stiter added, "spoke to us and greeted us personally."

Red Stab At Isle Near Formosa Repulsed

Nationalists Stop Amphibious Attack

...Hint Of Another Assault

TAIPEH, Formosa (Saturday) (AP)—The Chinese Nationalists claimed their troops and planes beat off a Communist amphibious assault Friday on a tiny island 72 miles west of Formosa.

But the possibility of another attempt was seen in reports of Red craft remaining in the general area.

First reports were that the Reds, in five gunboats and swarms of junks, succeeded in landing on tiny Wuchiu in Formosa Strait but were beaten off with many captured.

Friday night a Nationalist Defense Ministry communique said the attack was repulsed and the attackers fled toward the mainland. It made no reference to a landing or prisoners.

First Push Since Boast

The attack on Wuchiu, a mile-long, half-mile-wide island 15 miles off the mainland, was the first amphibious operation by the Reds since they began boasting last summer they would "liberate" Formosa.

Friday night's communique gave this terse version of the action:

At 1:06 a.m. yesterday—12:06 p.m. Thursday EST—the five Communist gunboats and many junks converged on Wuchiu from the west, south and north.

About 4 a.m., the attackers were repulsed by the island defenders and the Nationalist air force. There were earlier reports that the actual fighting lasted an hour.

Nationalist planes started a search at daylight for the Reds' sea craft. They sank six motorized boats and more than 30 other craft presumably junks.

Planes Unhit

Reds on the boats and junks fired machine guns at low-flying planes but without success.

The communique said, "the situation on Wuchiu is quite good and we have heightened our alertness."

Some officials quarters said it was not quite clear whether the Reds actually intended to occupy Wuchiu or merely stage a raid for intelligence purposes.

Press reports preceding the communique version said:

The Reds landed from motorized junks under cover of fire from gunboats. The Nationalist defenders recoiled under the initial assault but counterattacked with the support of Formosa-based warplanes and erased the beachhead, Nationalist warships also went inte action.

Tiny Island

Wuchiu, 63 miles northeast of Nationalist-held Quemoy and 66 miles southeast of Foochow on the mainland, is so small that it appears only on very large-scale maps.

Some Taipeh quarters thought it possible the Reds might have been interested in seeing whether their assault on a small offshore island would provoke any American reaction.

The only announced commitment of the U.S. 7th Fleet has been to safeguard Formosa and the Pescadores from Communist invasion. American policy has been to keep the Reds guessing as to intentions toward offshore islands.

Supply Depot Fire Raging Out Of Control

PUSAN (Saturday) (INS) — A fire, fanned by stiff east winds, broke out late Friday night in Pusan at the U.S. army's biggest supply depot in Korea and reportedly was still raging early today and spreading to nearby flimsy Korean houses.

Defying desperate efforts of 200 fire fighters to halt their progress, the flames reportedly spread to virtually all sections of the giant 55th quartermaster base depot. It appeared that most of the base would be destroyed.

All available fire fighting equipment in Pusan was rushed to the scene to fight the flames which were still out of control two and a half hours after the fire broke out.

There was no immediate estimate of damage to the big supply depot, located near the wharves of the port of Pusan on Korea's southeast coast.

Ironically, the fire erupted on the eve of the anniversary of the Nov. 27 conflagration that wiped out 7,000 flimsy houses and left 35,000 Koreans homeless in Pusan last year.

Los Angeles In For More Foggy Gloom

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Only hazy sunshine penetrated the eye-smarting smog which cast a paralyzing gloom over Southern California today.

The Weather Bureau said more heavy fog was due.

Friday night the fog came in off the ocean and halted air, sea and much highway travel, causing hundreds of auto accidents and maritime mishaps.

As it spread across the Los Angeles basin it became polluted with smoke and fumes from auto exhausts and industry and turned into smog.

Halt Burning

The Air Pollution Control Board asked residents and industry to halt burning of rubbish until the smog eased.

Autopsies were being conducted to determine if smog was a contributing factor in the deaths of three babies who died Thanksgiving Day.

Police, sheriff's officers and highway patrolmen estimated that there had been 1,300 traffic accidents in the past 36 fog and smog-bound hours. Two persons were killed and 130 injured.

Nine Rescued

Coast guardsmen rescued four adults and five children aboard a converted Navy crash boat which became lost and disabled in the fog bank off the coast. Harbor traffic was halted until the plale sunshine melted some of the gloom and permitted limited operations.

Operations at Los Angeles International Airport were closed when visibility dropped to a quarter mile and the ceiling was just above the treetops. Planes were rerouted into Lockheed Air Terminal in Burbank.

The Weather Bureau predicted the fog will continue through Sunday, with little hope for relief from smog.

Missouri Visitor Hurt In Two-Car Wreck

Ida Mae Hoff, 83, of Perryville, Mo., suffered minor injuries in a two car accident at Cotner Blvd. and O Street Friday night.

She was treated at St. Elizabeth's Hospital and later released. She was riding in a car driven by Dr. John Hoff Jr. of St. Louis. Both were in Lincoln visiting relatives over the Thanksgiving weekend.

Ex-Friend Minister Fair After Mishap

A former minister from Friend, Neb., was reported in fair condition at St. Elizabeth Hospital after walking into the side of a truck at 10th and O St.

Injured was Roy M. Reynolds, 76, retired Friend minister.

Police reported Mr. Reynolds had walked into the second of a two-truck convoy going south on 10th St. The second truck was being towed by the first.

Driver of the first truck was Roy D. Taylor, 26, of 5128 Leighton, He told police he was going with the green light about five miles an hour when he saw Reynolds look at him, then turn suddenly and walk into the second truck.

Patrolman Ray Gillispie said Reynolds suffered concussion, cuts about the front and back of the head, and cuts to his right hand. Gillispie said the trucks stopped immediately at the time of the accident.

Both trucks were pickups and were the property of the state. The driver of the second truck was Ralph E. Evans, 68, of 5909 Leighton.

Ava Plans Frankie's Heave-Ho

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Sultry Actress Ava Gardner said Friday she definitely intends to give Frank Sinatra the old heave-ho, but final untying of the marriage knot will have to wait until she returns from Europe next spring.

Ava told International News Service:

"I'm in no hurry to get a divorce, I have no other romantic interest at the moment."

The green-eyed beauty disclosed her plans at International airport before boarding a plane for Tokyo on a personal appearance tour that will take her to Hong Kong, Singapore, Rome, Paris, Berlin and London.

Ava, who recently has been linked romantically with Howard Hughes, said she "might" see her old flame, Spanish Matador Luis Dominguin with whom she held hands last July at Lake Tahoe and in Europe before that.

"But I'm not really interested in anyone," she insisted. "I haven't gone through with my divorce simply because I haven't had time."

Year-Old Dispute Settled

Truckers End Store Strike

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Striking AFL Teamsters Local 249 Friday night, on the eve of the first anniversary of a year-old walkout, signed a new three-year contract with three struck department stores and two delivery services for two other stores. Eleven other striking AFL unions are expected to follow suit.

"This does not mean the end of the strike," said Samuel R. Robb, head of the Labor Standards Assn. representing the stores. "We still got a lot of problems to work out."

Thomas L. Fagan, local president, signed for the teamsters and Robb for the stores. Fagan received permission to sign the contract after meeting with heads of 11 other unions.

Robb said the new contract calls for a 5-cent an hour wage increase effective the day the men return to work and another 3 1-3 cents, effective Feb. 14, 1955. The contract permits management to assign helpers as required. This had been a major stumbling block in the dispute with the union insisting that it have the right to decide when helpers can be used.

Will Honor Lines

Fagan said the contract contains a clause which permits his union membership to honor picket lines maintained by 11 other AFL unions still on strike at the stores.

The other unions have been on strike since shortly after the teamsters walked out last Nov. 27. The other unions' disputes center around wages and are expected to be worked out quickly now that the key union has come to terms.

Fagan said that his union and the Labor Standards Assn., representative for the stores, also agreed that the firms would use parcel post delivery only when all drivers are working. This also has been an obstacle to settling the dispute with the union insisting it should have sole right to decide when parcel post should be used.

Cultural Assistance Best Part Of Faculty Asia Trip

Furnishing of cultural assistance was the most satisfying part of the recent trip to Turkey made by University of Nebraska faculty members, one of them said Friday.

This belief was expressed by Dr. Albin T. Anderson, associate professor of history, who discussed educational problems in Turkey at the evening meeting of the third annual Conference of Asian Affairs.

Dr. Anderson was a member of the University faculty group which recently completed a trip to Turkey to help organize the new Ataturk University.

The Turks, he said, have gotten used to the idea that America is the land which produces highly effective military weapons and personnel with technical know-how. But Dr. Anderson pointed out, they had reason to suspect that America has no intellectual values or intellectual competence when it comes to the arts or humanities. After 1,000 years, he said, the intellectual current which moved west has begun to ebb back again.

Dr. Anderson said the Turks are not only willing, but anxious, to learn about American educational institutions and the values they have to offer.

Norman L. Hill, professor of political science at the University of Nebraska, told the group that regional organizations for security and for social and economic advancement were isolationist in character in that they localized problems that are international.

But in defense he asserted that neighborhood awareness is infinitely superior than no awareness.

Prof. Hill commented on the growth of treaties and agreements in southeast Asia for security and social and economic advance in which Western nations are participating.

The two-day conference designated Manhattan, Kan., as the meeting place of its 1955 conference and named the following 1955 conference officers:

President: Haridas T. Muzumdar, Cornell College, Iowa.

Vice president: Fred L. Parrish, Kansas State College.

Frank Hanson, 85, Dies At Hospital

Frank Hanson, 85, a resident of Lancaster County for 67 years, died Friday night at a local hospital.

Sen. McCarthy Will Be Present When Senate Meets

... Expects To Be Released From Hospital Sometime Sunday

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McCarthy's lawyer announced Friday that McCarthy will be there when the Senate reconvenes Monday to resume its debate on whether to censure the Wisconsin Republican.

Attorney Edward Bennett Williams said McCarthy expects to be released from the Naval medical center at nearby Bethesda, Md., some time Sunday.

The senator entered the hospital Nov. 17 for treatment of his right elbow, banged against a glass table top while he was shaking hands with an enthusiastic admirer in Milwaukee.

The Senate called "time out" the next day, not wanting to carry on the censure proceedings without McCarthy present. It voted to recess until Nov. 29, when it was hoped he would be well enough to attend.

A special Senate committee has recommended that McCarthy be officially rebuked for alleged contempt of a Senate group which investigated his financial and other affairs in 1952, and for alleged abuse of Brig. Gen. Ralph W. Zwicker when the officer was a witness before him

While McCarthy was in the hospital a move was started to reprimand him additionally for calling the special committee—a group of three Republicans and three Democrats—the "unwitting handmaiden of the Communist party.

Sen. Dirksen (R-Ill), a friend of McCarthy's, has announced that he will also try to offer a substitute for the original censure resolution. The substitute undoubtedly would be couched in milder terms.

Evidence of McCarthy's recovery was seen yesterday, when he was spotted taking a Thanksgiving Day drive through Washington. Hospital authorities confirmed today that he was "out of the hospital yesterday for a short while with the permission of the attending physician."

Richard O'Melia, a McCarthy aid, said the senator has been asked to speak in New York Monday night at a rally of McCarthy supporters who are trying to get 10 million signatures on an anti-censure petition.

O'Melia said McCarthy told the sponsors originally he wouldn't be able to make it, but that he didn't know what the situation is now.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Winifred Swanson, a Palmer, Mass., housewife, a counter drive is under way to obtain 20 million signatures favoring censure. These petitions are being sent directly to senators.

Sidney Cereal Mill Reaches End Of Career

SIDNEY, Neb. (AP) — The Sitz cereal mill, which has been grinding flour and feeds in Sidney for 29 years reached the end of its career Friday.

Owner LeRoy Sitz has sold his building to Joe Hahler of Sidney who will begin construction of a drive-in liquor store at the site.

Sitz said he's getting out of the milling business because "progress" has outmoded it.

Housewives bake their own bread and purchase prepared pancake mixes. Farmers have cut down on the chicken and egg business, he said because they find that the margin of profit after purchasing their feed is too small to make it worthwhile.

"They can make more money raising wheat than chickens," said Sitz," so why not raise wheat."

Sitz started operations here in 1923 and built the present mill in 1925. For the early years business was very good, but lately it has been declining sharply.

Sen. McCarthy Will Be Present When Senate Meets

... Expects To Be Released From Hospital Sometime Sunday

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McCarthy's lawyer announced Friday that McCarthy will be there when the Senate reconvenes Monday to resume its debate on whether to censure the Wisconsin Republican.

Attorney Edward Bennett Williams said McCarthy expects to be released from the Naval medical center at nearby Bethesda, Md., some time Sunday.

The senator entered the hospital Nov. 17 for treatment of his right elbow, banged against a glass table top while he was shaking hands with an enthusiastic admirer in Milwaukee.

The Senate called "time out" the next day, not wanting to carry on the censure proceedings without McCarthy present. It voted to recess until Nov. 29, when it was hoped he would be well enough to attend.

A special Senate committee has recommended that McCarthy be officially rebuked for alleged contempt of a Senate group which investigated his financial and other affairs in 1952, and for alleged abuse of Brig. Gen. Ralph W. Zwicker when the officer was a witness before him.

While McCarthy was in the hospital a move was started to reprimand him additionally for calling the special committee—a group of three Republicans and three Democrats—the "unwitting handmaiden of the Communist party.

Sen. Dirksen (R-Ill), a friend of McCarthy's, has announced that he will also try to offer a substitute for the original censure resolution. The substitute undoubtedly would be couched in milder terms.

Evidence of McCarthy's recovery was seen yesterday, when he was spotted taking a Thanksgiving Day drive through Washington. Hospital authorities confirmed today that he was "out of the hospital yesterday for a short while with the permission of the attending physician."

Richard O'Melia, a McCarthy aid, said the senator has been asked to speak in New York Monday night at a rally of McCarthy supporters who are trying to get 10 million signatures on an anti-censure petition.

That Balanced Budget

If, as the news columns suggest, President Eisenhower rounds out his first term in the White House without succeeding in balancing the federal budget, he could rate sympathy instead of criticism.

Fact is, there was an amazing amount of glib talk about a balanced budget. Most of it made the job look easy, when in light of all demands of the times upon Uncle Sam, a balanced budget is neither simple nor easy. Any administration, Republican or Democrat, can tell the people that it purposes to balance the budget, which takes a lot of doing because the President himself does not have complete, full responsibility for the purse strings.

He must have the full help of Congress which can and has overridden the White House on occasions. Chances are that when the new Democratic-controlled Congress meets in January, Sen. Henry Byrd of Virginia, the treasury's real watchdog, will head up the Senate committee on appropriations. Sen. Byrd is a tough hombre. He takes the position that if a budget is to be balanced, then it is necessary to limit expenditures to something a little less than revenues to which the government may look forward.

But since the late 'twenties, the full measure of the problems which have confronted the federal government best can be had by recalling that deficit financing has been necessary every year. We may crack off by continuing emergencies but the fact is that virtually every month since 1930 has provided an emergency of one kind or another.

Safeguarding The Child

Children, we say, are the nation's greatest resource. To that we are sure people generally will agree. In full sympathy with the objective of protecting the child, the ordinance which Councilwoman Fern Hubbard Orme has introduced for approval by the Lincoln City Council needs to be examined carefully.

Obviously the proposal seeks to contribute to the comic book crusade which churches, schools and other groups have been carrying on, a highly desirable objective subject only to examination as to methods and results.

Mrs. Orme's ordinance prohibits and establishes penalties for the publication and distribution to minors of a comprehensive list of printed, recorded, or reproduced materials.

One section of the proposals particularly invites study:

Section Two: No person, firm or corporation shall print, publish, write, import, distribute, exhibit, display, sell, possess with intent to sell, offer for sale, lend or give away to a minor a book, pamphlet, magazine or other printed paper containing accounts of criminal deeds or pictures or stories of deeds of bloodshed, lust or crime by characters depicted either as real or fanciful, human or inhuman, which manifestly tend to incite minors to disregard the law of the land.

Naturally that section, together with the section preceding it dealing with what is characterized as obscene, immoral or indecent material, tending to incite minors to violent, depraved or immoral acts or that which otherwise manifestly tends to the corruption of the morals of the minors, will depend entirely upon interpretation.

Not likely but not impossible, would the childhood book of "Treasure Island" come within his classification? Recently there was a guard slain at the Nebraska Penitentiary. Would publication of the details be subject to question? What is the effect on the immature mind of many of the daily happenings which are a matter of common knowledge and which in the responsibility for news coverage by a free press could not other than raise doubts, uncertainties and confusion. What in the exact language of the ordinance would be the interpretation upon publication of pictures of bathing beauties or of other developments common to American life?

Now, there is not a citizen worthy of his or her salt who does not recognize the seriousness of the situation. The desire and the hope is for constant improvement in America, improvement particularly in the wholesome atmosphere which should surround child life. But the ordinance must be weighed alongside the provision in the Nebraska constitution which confers upon all Nebraska citizens the right to "freely speak, write and publish on all subjects, being responsible for the abuse of that liberty."

It is not a question of the sponsor's sincerity, nor the desirability of objective upon which there can be common agreement. The prohibitions contained in the ordinance are drawn in such broad, general terms as to be unrealistic in the approach to the objectives sought.

Development of sound morals in youth is a day-by-day job covering years, and at best not easy. But we are making progerss in this country, we are making it slowly and gradually, the only manner in which sound and lasting progress can be achieved. We will reach our goal more surely and more solidly by recognizing the realities and in dealing in moderation instead of questionable shortcuts.

Of Men And Things

By J. E. LAWRENCE

Omaha, with admirable foresight, is taking steps to provide a growing community with an adequate water supply. The Metropolitan Utilities District is nearing completion of work for three new settling basins at the Florence water works. At a cost of nearly a million and a half dollars, this will provide Omaha with an additional 20 million gallons of water daily.

Nebraska Joins South Dakota

There is sound vision back of Nebraska's decision to join hands with South Dakota in urging adoption of a program to clear the Gavins Point reservoir of sunken obstructions. Gavins Point, which fills the role of a regulating reservoir, smallest of the developments on the upper Missouri in the huge flood control program now under way there, has been taking it on the chin as a result of the economy program. South Dakota and Nebraska this week placed before Army engineers, responsible for construction at Gavins Point, the desirable proposal that all trees more than 20 feet in height and three inches in diameter be removed from the reservoir from the site of the dam to a point just west of Springfield.. Any lake serving recreational purposes does project unnecessary hazards when sunken trees are permitted to remain in the reservoir area. These contribute hazards to swimming, boating and fishing whenever this condition exists. In all good time, we assume, the recreational problems in connection with these Missouri River lakes will iron themselves out. But both states will be well advised to keep a watchful eye on the progress of developments.

Not that it makes a great deal of difference, but Secretary of the Interior Douglas McKay wants it distinctly understood he was misconstrued when an Associated Press report of a speech McKay made in New York indicated he was opposed to public power and social security. "At no time have I or the administration been opposed to public power." Mr. McKay said. "We're opposed to the federal government furnishing all the power." Which in practical, everyday application could be a distinction without a difference.

Mitchell's New Popularity

Democratic National Chairman Stephen A. Mitchell may be inclined these days to pinch himself to discover if he is seeing and hearing things right. Earlier in his tenure of the top post in the Democratic national organization, Mr. Mitchell had his critics, many of them unfair critics. Now he is the fair-haired boy. The pressure is on him to remain as head of the Democratic National Committee for at least a few months. But Mr. Mitchell months ago announced his intention of retiring from the post he occupies, and he will not be swerved by the new appeals to continue on. Fact is that Mr. Mitchell has done a remarkably outstanding, efficient job as the head of the Democratic National Committee. To no small extent, due to his efforts, he has put his party back in excellent position, and has provided it with the magnificent demonstration of sound, wise leadership. It must be gratifying to him to know that some of his critics have seen the light.

President Eisenhower's advisory committee on a national highway program is reported in the news columns to be worried about money. It is not an everyday pocketbook pinch but a shortage of investment capital. The program itself envisions expenditure of more than a hundred million dollars in the next 10 years, an adequate amount of dough to worry not only the committee but a lot of other people.

Lease On Life

In a sort of an old fuddy-duddy reactionary way it is encouraging to learn that the atomic scientists are running into a road block. They fear they are reaching the point where bigger and better hydrogen bombs won't do any more damage than the ones we now have. The atmosphere was built all wrong. Its top is too thin. A bomb can be big enough to blow straight up, and blow out sideways or down no more than a smaller one. This means that the complete extermination of the earth will have to be postponed a while, and secretly we join a lot of other folks in welcoming that news. It's kind of nice around here just as it is.

Editorial Of The Day

The Will, The Way

(From The Denver Post)

Jefferson County's experiment with the "cottage school" is an innovation in educational housing hereabout that has already been satisfactorily tested in other communities. The urgent need for additional classrooms plus the high cost of modern school buildings appears to be creating a trend all over the country towards low cost, temporary expedients to deal with the pupil surplus in elementary schools.

Dallas, Tex., has used the cottage school for some time. Newtonville, Mass., has built a number of pentagon shaped school rooms at a cost of $62,000 per unit of four to take care of overflow needs, where and as the overflow occurs. These five-sided buildings are first rate in construction and functional design. They are also transportable; that is, they can be moved about if and when the pressure of enrollment shifts.

Harold B. Gores, superintendent of Newtonville schools, points out that "the increase in school enrollment is a wave washing up through the grades toward the high school. Who is to say for sure," he asks, "that the wave will never recede in any part of a city or in any level of the school system? In the interest of caution, should we not gain experience at once with housing that is transportable?"

So Newtonville is trying it out, as Jefferson County is to try out the cottage type, two-room school, which eventually will be convertible into a dwelling.

These pioneering communities may have hit upon a generally applicable and acceptable device providing at least temporary relief from the double stringency afflicting public education—the cost of school buildings sufficient for enrollment needs on the one hand, and the cost of more and better teachers.

Vishinsky Favored Four Power Parley

WASHINGTON — When ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge expressed his regret at the death of Soviet delegate Vishinsky it meant considerably more than the usual official condolence.

Privately Lodge went further. He said it was a shame that Vishinsky passed on at this particular time when he had shown himself much more conciliatory toward the United States.

What Lodge referred to is the fact that Vishinsky recently accepted the Eisenhower atoms-for-peace once rebuffed by Moscow.

Also the White House, in part through Lodge, has been working on the idea of a Big Four conference next spring. This, of course, was not Eisenhower's original idea. It was Churchill's, and hitherto Ike has been against it. But in the past month, the President has gone along with Churchill, at long last, on the idea of a Big Four meeting, and in so doing the President pretty much overruled his own State Department advisers, many of whom are convinced that a Big Four meeting would get nowhere.

Furthermore, the speech of Mendes-France, also proposing a Big Four conference, was made only with the advance OK of the White House — an OK for which the French, in return, promised to push for complete agreement with Germany over rearmament.

All this leaves something of a co-existence diplomatic puzzle in Washington. It's to help solve this puzzle that Ambassador Bohlen has returned from Moscow following his friendly talk with Premier Malenkov at the recent "Russian revolution" reception, at which Malenkov said that the door was open to future friendly conversations.

Bohlen will advise as to just how far he thinks the Russians will go.

IKE'S POLITICAL DIAGNOSIS

The White House has now received an analysis of the election returns with a breakdown as to what political issues hurt Ike most.

The conclusion is that what cost the most votes for the Republican party were:

No. 1, Unemployment.

No. 2, The Dixon-Yates private power contract and the entire issue of public vs. private power.

The White House diagnosticians also decided that the Benson farm program had not hurt appreciably. Other Rpublicans, including Sen. Irving Ives of New York, who lost some farm support in upper New York state, do not agree. But anyway that's the White House conclusion and Ike is sticking by it.

Also the President seems to be sticking by his Dixon-Yates contract for a private, government-backed steam plant to compete with the Tennessee Valley Authority. Advisers have warned that Ike's adamant position on this has cut very deep politically, but the President has been urged by New York business friends to take a stand against public power and so far he hasn't deviated.

IKE'S LABOR DEPARTMENT

Upper echelons of Eisenhower's Labor Department have about concluded that it's true what they say about politics being stranger than fiction. The new Democratic Congress, they figure, will do better by them than the GOP Congress that roughed them up during the past two years.

It was McCarthyite Congressman Fred Busbey of Illinois, they recall, who cruelly blocked money for a desperately needed study of oakie-arkie migrant farm labor. Secretary of Labor Mitchell begged the Budget Bureau for this money, but from his key spot in the appropriations committee, Busbey yelled, "socialism!" and only the full weight of the White House and the Senate managed to reverse him to the paltry extent of $50,000. Now Busbey is defeated.

Undersecretary Arthur Larsen, a good Republican, bitterly remembers how GOP Congressmen grilled him for two solid days on the plan to liberalize unemployment insurance in order to give 4,000,000 more workers insurance benefits. The cry this time was, "A violation of state rights!"

Democrats came to Larsen's rescue and paved the way for enactment of part of the plan.

The Labor Department's big pitch this year is to cut down industrial injuries and improve workmen's compensation laws. Secretary Mitchell started on this problem a year ago and believes that public opinion is building up to prevent the nation's 2,000,000 annual accidents and 15,000 deaths estimated to cost $4,500,000,000. Mitchell points to the 44 per cent drop in the injury rate in North Carolina laundries after the safety program started there.

Real force behind this campaign is soft spoken, determined under-Secretary Larsen, who handled workmen's compensation cases in Milwaukee some years ago. A former University of Pittsburgh law dean, Larsen has written a hefty two-volume legal study of workmen's compensation and accident prevention. He's now writing a model law for the guidance of states and tells friends his heart is set on straightening out the workmen's compensation tangle before he leaves government service.

Now Fred Attebury, quietly puts in a word for a tree on his ranch near Mitchell. He passes out to friends horse chestnuts. He then explains that he has the only horse chestnut tree in the western part of the state.

The horse chestnut as a pocket-piece, according to legend, has many curative properties such as relieving rheumatism, etc. The Sower is assured continued good health by one of Fred's gifts.

Miss Lemon with her always cheery smile and courteous treatment accompanying her efficient handling of appointments has become one of the most popular and best liked of all state employees.

The Sower hopes the rumor is correct and that Miss Donna will continue her cheerful greetings to us daily for the next two years.

A combination of new laws passed by other states plus increased efficiency demanded by Ed Hoyt, director of agriculture, is pouring more dollars into the Nebraska treasury.

Motor vehicles freely cross state lines merely by obeying the laws of their state of registration. License plates of other states are recognized by all states. The exceptions are states charging a ton-mile tax for trucks using their highways.

A number of states now charge the tax on their own trucks as well as those from other states. When their trucks visit Nebraska they are required to pay the same ton-mile tax as on their local roads. This is paid in the form of trip permits given at ports of entry.

Income from this source in 1951 was only $125,137. For the first 10 months of this year, it has soared to $266,156. Part of this is due to more states taxing on the basis of miles traveled.

But Director Hoyt gets some of the credit through a reorganization of the ports of entry. Previously some ports were operated on a part-time basis by filling station attendants and others. Their own business came first and close checks frequently were not made of "foreign" trucks.

Full-time port operators are now employed and trained in the laws of other states and familiar with which trucks crossing the state boundary are required to have trip permits to travel in this state.

The increased revenue reflects increased efficiency.

In this day of the cheap dollar and lessening of the curbs on spending, it was interesting to note this week that not all state employees move in an ivory tower of grandiose ideas with no regard for the taxpayers' dollar.

First came the newly created board of health with proposals to work out a co-ordination of the many activities both professional and public, launched recently to improve public health. Campaigns, probably all worthy, now range practically from control of dandruff to bunions.

All being of scientific research, it appears logical that only the scientist knows how much can be economically expended for each activity instead of depending on heart appeal.

Chancellor Clifford Hardin of the University of Nebraska instead of asking several million dollars to add a school of veterinary medicine to the campus assured the incoming and outgoing governors that he will attempt to work out an opportunity for Nebraska boys to get this training in nearby states.

It was estimated that such a plan is possible at about 10 cents on the dollar of the cost that would be entailed by opening another new college and the state agriculture needs could thus be met.

"Ring The Bells Of Heaven" was written by William C. Cushing, who received one day from George Frederick Root, the composer, a fascinating tune which kept singing in his mind for days while he tried to give it a religious setting. Those who have sung the choruses of "Ring The Bells of Heaven" can understand why Cushing was attracted by the melody. Somehow, he decided, it must be saved for a Sunday school song or some other religious purpose.

As a writer of soul-winning hymns, Cushing was interested in drawing men and women to Christ and one day, as he saw a man seek the altar at the close of an evangelistic meeting, he thought of how the bells of heaven must be ringing in gladness for a sinner's return.

"Then", he tells us, "The words, 'Ring The Bells Of Heaven', flowed at once into the waiting melody", and the new hymn was made.

Adlai To State Demo Policy

WASHINGTON—Adlai Stevenson will set forth his views on the responsibility of the Democratic party during the next few years when he addresses the national committee meeting in New Orleans Dec. 4.

He will deal both with foreign and domestic policy in a carefully wrought major speech. He expects to devote most of next week to its preparation, consulting with friends and reviewing the newspapers and magazines he missed while on his hunting vacation. The care he devotes to writing and polishing his speeches is proverbial.

On foreign policy the 1952 Democratic candidate for President has just had the advantage of a briefing by one of the world's best-informed experts, the French prime minister, Pierre Mendes-France. The two men spent an hour together in New York Tuesday.

It was learned on good authority that Mendes-France took full advantage of the opportunity to explain France to the titular leader of the party which will control the next Congress though not the White House. Stevenson was described as a good listener.

Mendes-France was of course fresh from conferences here with President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles and had checked in with the United Nations. The cables have been full, too, of the many problems he will confront when he returns home to start reforming France's internal economy.

The meeting between the French premier and Stevenson was arranged by George Ball, a Washington lawyer who is friend and counsel to both men. It was not their first session. Stevenson talked with Mendes-France in Paris last year.

It will be recalled also that when this country was exerting pressure on Mendes-France to rescue the European Defense Community. Stevenson wrote him a personal note in longhand to assure him it was not a partisan issue but favored by all Americans.

It can be confidently forecast that on foreign policy Stevenson will meet President Eisenhower halfway—but not Vice President Nixon. The vice president will not be allowed to forget at New Orleans that he picked up the McCarthy line in the campaign about the Democrats being soft on Communism. An exhibit there will probably be devoted to the Nixon speeches in the Far West.

In the field of domestic policy Stevenson realizes that the Congress after all will take the lead. But he is known to feel that it is time to set new goals and create new plans rather than look back to the new and fair deals.

Conferences of Democratic leaders have still not developed the ideal national chairman. Oscar Chapman, former secretary of interior, has been suggested as the perfect compromise but he is ill. So is James Finnegan, president of the Philadelphia city council, candidate of his state leaders.

Meanwhile, Paul Butler, Indiana national committeeman, is ignoring a Truman veto and collecting support. So is Mike Di Salle of Toledo, O., former price administrator. And national chairman Stephen Mitchell has grimly turned down a suggestion that he stay on for a few more months.

THE COMEDIAN

They laughed at him and glad was he
That what he said could laughter bring.
While laughing, all from care are free
And fear and bitter sorrowing
Then young once more were all the old.
No one remembered ache and pain.
They laughed at every jest he told.
To be alive seemed good again.

They laughed, and trouble
mattered not.
No one could failures past
recall.
The small distinctions were forgot.
United for the time were all.

Perhaps their quarrels will return
And hate divide them as before,
But peace might come if we could learn
Merely to laugh a little more.

That Balanced Budget

If, as the news columns suggest, President Eisenhower rounds out his first term in the White House without succeeding in balancing the federal budget, he could rate sympathy instead of criticism.

Fact is, there was an amazing amount of glib talk about a balanced budget. Most of it made the job look easy, when in light of all demands of the times upon Uncle Sam, a balanced budget is neither simple nor easy. Any administration, Republican or Democrat, can tell the people that it purposes to balance the budget, which takes a lot of doing because the President himself does not have complete, full responsibility for the purse strings.

He must have the full help of Congress which can and has overridden the White House on occasions. Chances are that when the new Democratic-controlled Congress meets in January, Sen. Henry Byrd of Virginia, the treasury's real watchdog, will head up the Senate committee on appropriations. Sen. Byrd is a tough hombre. He takes the position that if a budget is to be balanced, then it is necessary to limit expenditures to something a little less than revenues to which the government may look forward.

But since the late 'twenties, the full measure of the problems which have confronted the federal government best can be had by recalling that deficit financing has been necessary every year. We may crack off by continuing emergencies but the fact is that virtually every month since 1930 has provided an emergency of one kind or another.

Safeguarding The Child

Children, we say, are the nation's greatest resource. To that we are sure people generally will agree. In full sympathy with the objective of protecting the child, the ordinance which Councilwoman Fern Hubbard Orme has introduced for approval by the Lincoln City Council needs to be examined carefully.

Obviously the proposal seeks to contribute to the comic book crusade which churches, schools and other groups have been carrying on, a highly desirable objective subject only to examination as to methods and results.

Mrs. Orme's ordinance prohibits and establishes penalties for the publication and distribution to minors of a comprehensive list of printed, recorded, or reproduced materials.

One section of the proposals particularly invites study:

Section Two: No person, firm or corporation shall print, publish, write, import, distribute, exhibit, display, sell, possess with intent to sell, offer for sale, lend or give away to a minor a book, pamphlet, magazine or other printed paper containing accounts of criminal deeds or pictures or stories of deeds of bloodshed, lust or crime by characters depicted either as real or fanciful, human or inhuman, which manifestly tend to incite minors to disregard the law of the land.

Naturally that section, together with the section preceding it dealing with what is characterized as obscene, immoral or indecent material, tending to incite minors to violent, depraved or immoral acts or that which otherwise manifestly tends to the corruption of the morals of the minors, will depend entirely upon interpretation.

Not likely but not impossible, would the childhood book of "Treasure Island" come within his classification? Recently there was a guard slain at the Nebraska Penitentiary. Would publication of the details be subject to question? What is the effect on the immature mind of many of the daily happenings which are a matter of common knowledge and which in the responsibility for news coverage by a free press could not other than raise doubts, uncertainties and confusion. What in the exact language of the ordinance would be the interpretation upon publication of pictures of bathing beauties or of other developments common to American life?

Now, there is not a citizen worthy of his or her salt who does not recognize the seriousness of the situation. The desire and the hope is for constant improvement in America, improvement particularly in the wholesome atmosphere which should surround child life. But the ordinance must be weighed alongside the provision in the Nebraska constitution which confers upon all Nebraska citizens the right to "freely speak, write and publish on all subjects, being responsible for the abuse of that liberty."

It is not a question of the sponsor's sincerity, nor the desirability of objective upon which there can be common agreement. The prohibitions contained in the ordinance are drawn in such broad, general terms as to be unrealistic in the approach to the objectives sought.

Development of sound morals in youth is a day-by-day job covering years, and at best not easy. But we are making progerss in this country, we are making it slowly and gradually, the only manner in which sound and lasting progress can be achieved. We will reach our goal more surely and more solidly by recognizing the realities and in dealing in moderation instead of questionable shortcuts.

Lease On Life

In a sort of an old fuddy-duddy reactionary way it is encouraging to learn that the atomic scientists are running into a road block. They fear they are reaching the point where bigger and better hydrogen bombs won't do any more damage than the ones we now have. The atmosphere was built all wrong. Its top is too thin. A bomb can be big enough to blow straight up, and blow out sideways or down no more than a smaller one. This means that the complete extermination of the earth will have to be postponed a while, and secretly we join a lot of other folks in welcoming that news. It's kind of nice around here just as it is.

Editorial Of The Day

The Will, The Way

(From The Denver Post)

Jefferson County's experiment with the "cottage school" is an innovation in educational housing hereabout that has already been satisfactorily tested in other communities. The urgent need for additional classrooms plus the high cost of modern school buildings appears to be creating a trend all over the country towards low cost, temporary expedients to deal with the pupil surplus in elementary schools.

Dallas, Tex., has used the cottage school for some time. Newtonville, Mass., has built a number of pentagon shaped school rooms at a cost of $62,000 per unit of four to take care of overflow needs, where and as the overflow occurs. These five-sided buildings are first rate in construction and functional design. They are also transportable; that is, they can be moved about if and when the pressure of enrollment shifts.

Harold B. Gores, superintendent of Newtonville schools, points out that "the increase in school enrollment is a wave washing up through the grades toward the high school. Who is to say for sure," he asks, "that the wave will never recede in any part of a city or in any level of the school system? In the interest of caution, should we not gain experience at once with housing that is transportable?"

So Newtonville is trying it out, as Jefferson County is to try out the cottage type, two-room school, which eventually will be convertible into a dwelling.

These pioneering communities may have hit upon a generally applicable and acceptable device providing at least temporary relief from the double stringency afflicting public education—the cost of school buildings sufficient for enrollment needs on the one hand, and the cost of more and better teachers.

Omaha, with admirable foresight, is taking steps to provide a growing community with an adequate water supply. The Metropolitan Utilities District is nearing completion of work for three new settling basins at the Florence water works. At a cost of nearly a million and a half dollars, this will provide Omaha with an additional 20 million gallons of water daily.

Nebraska Joins South Dakota

There is sound vision back of Nebraska's decision to join hands with South Dakota in urging adoption of a program to clear the Gavins Point reservoir of sunken obstructions. Gavins Point, which fills the role of a regulating reservoir, smallest of the developments on the upper Missouri in the huge flood control program now under way there, has been taking it on the chin as a result of the economy program. South Dakota and Nebraska this week placed before Army engineers, responsible for construction at Gavins Point, the desirable proposal that all trees more than 20 feet in height and three inches in diameter be removed from the reservoir from the site of the dam to a point just west of Springfield.. Any lake serving recreational purposes does project unnecessary hazards when sunken trees are permitted to remain in the reservoir area. These contribute hazards to swimming, boating and fishing whenever this condition exists. In all good time, we assume, the recreational problems in connection with these Missouri River lakes will iron themselves out. But both states will be well advised to keep a watchful eye on the progress of developments.

Not that it makes a great deal of difference, but Secretary of the Interior Douglas McKay wants it distinctly understood he was misconstrued when an Associated Press report of a speech McKay made in New York indicated he was opposed to public power and social security. "At no time have I or the administration been opposed to public power," Mr. McKay said. "We're opposed to the federal government furnishing all the power." Which in practical, everyday application could be a distinction without a difference.

Mitchell's New Popularity

Democratic National Chairman Stephen A. Mitchell may be inclined these days to pinch himself to discover if he is seeing and hearing things right. Earlier in his tenure of the top post in the Democratic national organization, Mr. Mitchell had his critics, many of them unfair critics. Now he is the fair-haired boy. The pressure is on him to remain as head of the Democratic National Committee for at least a few months. But Mr. Mitchell months ago announced his intention of retiring from the post he occupies, and he will not be swerved by the new appeals to continue on. Fact is that Mr. Mitchell has done a remarkably outstanding, efficient job as the head of the Democratic National Committee. To no small extent, due to his efforts, he has put his party back in excellent position, and has provided it with the magnificent demonstration of sound, wise leadership. It must be gratifying to him to know that some of his critics have seen the light.

President Eisenhower's advisory committee on a national highway program is reported in the news columns to be worried about money. It is not an everyday pocketbook pinch but a shortage of investment capital. The program itself envisions expenditure of more than a hundred million dollars in the next 10 years, an adequate amount of dough to worry not only the committee but a lot of other people.

Vishinsky Favored Four Power Parley

WASHINGTON — When ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge expressed his regret at the death of Soviet delegate Vishinsky it meant considerably more than the usual official condolence.

Privately Lodge went further. He said it was a shame that Vishinsky passed on at this particular time when he had shown himself much more conciliatory toward the United States.

What Lodge referred to is the fact that Vishinsky recently accepted the Eisenhower atoms-for-peace once rebuffed by Moscow.

Also the White House, in part through Lodge, has been working on the idea of a Big Four conference next spring. This, of course, was not Eisenhower's original idea. It was Churchill's, and hitherto Ike has been against it. But in the past month, the President has gone along with Churchill, at long last, on the idea of a Big Four meeting, and in so doing the President pretty much overruled his own State Department advisers, many of whom are convinced that a Big Four meeting would get nowhere.

Furthermore, the speech of Mendes-France, also proposing a Big Four conference, was made only with the advance OK of the White House — an OK for which the French, in return, promised to push for complete agreement with Germany over rearmament.

All this leaves something of a co-existence diplomatic puzzle in Washington. It's to help solve this puzzle that Ambassador Bohlen has returned from Moscow following his friendly talk with Premier Malenkov at the recent "Russian revolution" reception, at which Malenkov said that the door was open to future friendly conversations.

Bohlen will advise as to just how far he thinks the Russians will go.

IKE'S POLITICAL DIAGNOSIS

The White House has now received an analysis of the election returns with a breakdown as to what political issues hurt Ike most.

The conclusion is that what cost the most votes for the Republican party were:

No. 1, Unemployment.

No. 2, The Dixon-Yates private power contract and the entire issue of public vs. private power.

The White House diagnosticians also decided that the Benson farm program had not hurt appreciably. Other Rpublicans, including Sen. Irving Ives of New York, who lost some farm support in upper New York state, do not agree. But anyway that's the White House conclusion and Ike is sticking by it.

Also the President seems to be sticking by his Dixon-Yates contract for a private, government-backed steam plant to compete with the Tennessee Valley Authority. Advisers have warned that Ike's adamant position on this has cut very deep politically, but the President has been urged by New York business friends to take a stand against public power and so far he hasn't deviated.

IKE'S LABOR DEPARTMENT

Upper echelons of Eisenhower's Labor Department have about concluded that it's true what they say about politics being stranger than fiction. The new Democratic Congress, they figure, will do better by them than the GOP Congress that roughed them up during the past two years.

It was McCarthyite Congressman Fred Busbey of Illinois, they recall, who cruelly blocked money for a desperately needed study of oakie-arkie migrant farm labor. Secretary of Labor Mitchell begged the Budget Bureau for this money, but from his key spot in the appropriations committee, Busbey yelled, "socialism!" and only the full weight of the White House and the Senate managed to reverse him to the paltry extent of $50,000. Now Busbey is defeated.

Undersecretary Arthur Larsen, a good Republican, bitterly remembers how GOP Congressmen grilled him for two solid days on the plan to liberalize unemployment insurance in order to give 4,000,000 more workers insurance benefits. The cry this time was, "A violation of state rights!"

Mendes-France was of course fresh from conferences here with President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles and had checked in with the United Nations. The cables have been full, too, of the many problems he will confront when he returns home to start reforming France's internal economy.

The meeting between the French premier and Stevenson was arranged by George Ball, a Washington lawyer who is friend and counsel to both men. It was not their first session. Stevenson talked with Mendes-France in Paris last year.

It will be recalled also that when this country was exerting pressure on Mendes-France to rescue the European Defense Community. Stevenson wrote him a personal note in longhand to assure him it was not a partisan issue but favored by all Americans.

It can be confidently forecast that on foreign policy Stevenson will meet President Eisenhower halfway—but not Vice President Nixon. The vice president will not be allowed to forget at New Orleans that he picked up the McCarthy line in the campaign about the Democrats being soft on Communism. An exhibit there will probably be devoted to the Nixon speeches in the Far West.

In the field of domestic policy Stevenson realizes that the Congress after all will take the lead. But he is known to feel that it is time to set new goals and create new plans rather than look back to the new and fair deals.

Conferences of Democratic leaders have still not developed the ideal national chairman. Oscar Chapman, former secretary of interior, has been suggested as the perfect compromise but he is ill. So is James Finnegan, president of the Philadelphia city council, candidate of his state leaders.

Meanwhile, Paul Butler, Indiana national committeeman, is ignoring a Truman veto and collecting support. So is Mike Di Salle of Toledo, O., former price administrator. And national chairman Stephen Mitchell has grimly turned down a suggestion that he stay on for a few more months.

THE COMEDIAN

They laughed at him and glad
was he
That what he said could
laughter bring.
While laughing, all from care are free
And fear and bitter sorrowing
Then young once more were all the old.
No one remembered ache and
pain.
They laughed at every jest he told.
To be alive seemed good again.

They laughed, and trouble
mattered not.
No one could failures past
recall.
The small distinctions were
forgot.
United for the time were all.

Perhaps their quarrels will return
before,
But peace might come if we could learn
Merely to laugh a little more.

Many View Special Loup City Library Display

More than 3,000 persons viewed a Book Week display which Harriet Gallaway, librarian at Loup City the past 15 years, set up in the basement of the city library. Each November the library has miniature constructions of scenes taken from children's story books. School children and adults came from Rockville, Ashton, Hazard, Litchfield, Ravenna, Farwell, St. Libory and Kearney and rural school children came from Sherman, Howard, Custer and Valley Counties to see the display and hear Miss Gallaway tell the stories depicted. Hard Luck Couple Find Friends Galore Even Though Strangers

OMAHA (AP)—For Robert Campbell, 25, and his wife, Donna, 20, Thanksgiving helped make up for a run of tough luck that climaxed earlier this week when the couple was innocently involved in a police case.

The story of the Campbells and their 9 months old son Ronnie was told in a Thursday morning newspaper story. By 7:30 a. m. the first stream of visitors arrived at the Campbell apartment and with them came:

35 Dinner Invitations

Thirty-five invitations to Thanksgiving dinners; seven chickens, three turkeys, four ducks as well as hams, roasts, chops and bacon; cash gifts totaling about $60; 100 pounds of potatoes; free baby-sitting services, and best of all, half-a-dozen job offers for Campbell.

A native of Colorado, Campbell is a Brahma bull rider during the rodeo season. His work on construction jobs here in the off-season has not been steady.

Rodeo Equipment Stolen

During the family's run of bad luck Campbell's rodeo equipment was stolen and both Mrs. Campbell and Ronnie were hospitalized. Then the Campbells had befriended a couple who turned out to be bad check passers. Police absolved the Campbells.

But things looked mighty different now.

"It's wonderful!" exclaimed Mrs. Campbell.

Jesuits Honor Retiring Cook

OMAHA (AP)—For the 6½ years James O. Cunningham cooked for the Jesuit community at Creighton University, he never missed a day on the job.

When Cunningham retired this week, the Jesuits surprised him with a dinner at which he was guest of honor.

The Very Rev. Carl Reinert, S.J., president of the university, sat at his side as Jim carved the big Thanksgiving fowl.

Stuart's Oldest Resident Reaches 103rd Anniversary

STUART, Neb. (AP)—Thanksgiving Day of 1954 was another milestone for Mrs. Alice Axtell, Stuart's oldest resident.

It was her 103rd birthday anniversary.

It was 74 years ago that Alice Butterfield came to Holt County with her parents in a covered wagon. She had come to the west for her health.

In 1887 she was married to Joseph Axtell, whom she survives.

Mrs. Axtell has always been able to keep busy but last winter she was injured in a fall and now is compelled to spend much of her time in a wheel chair. She makes her home with her daughter, Pearl.

4 Watersheds In State Ask SCS Plan Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—Four applications have been received from Nebraska for inclusion in the small watershed assistance program of the Soil Conservation Service.

Dr. Carl Brown, director of the planning division of the Soil Conservation Service, said they are from Brock watershed, Nemaha County; Wild Horse watershed, Morrill County; Antelope Creek watershed, Sheridan County; and Nine-Mile watershed in Scotts Bluff, Morrill and Sioux Counties.

Brown said some 170 applications have been received from various parts of the nation and indications are that the total may swell to 500 before next June 30.

Planning Purposes

Congress earlier this year appropriated $1,750,000 for pilot watershed projects. Most of the money probably will be used only for planning purposes, Brown said.

The money is in addition to 10½ million dollars appropriated by Congress during the past two years for work on the original 60 watershed projects, estimated to cost $18,706,000.

The work includes soil and water conservation measures such as contouring, building of small structures for flood control up to 5,000 acre feet capacity, channel improvements, drainage and other types of control measures.

Kittens, Pups Keep Maternity Ward Hustling

EDISON, Neb. (AP)—The improvised maternity ward at the C. B. Swayze home was in a state of confusion after the family cat, Tabby, gave birth to five kittens and Taffy, the cocker spaniel, became the mother of seven pups, the same night.

Tabby took exception to Taffy's efforts to baby sit for the whole lot, and when Taffy transferred the kittens to the puppies' bed, Tabby reclaimed her family. Taffy carried them back.

All the attention proved fatal to two of the new kittens and at that point the Swayzes stepped in to remove Tabby and her family from the glassed in porch that had served as a maternity ward to the washhouse.

Six Motherless Children Arrive At Kin's Home

OMAHA (AP)—Six youngsters, ranging in age from one to twelve years, arrived in Omaha by air Friday from Honolulu.

But the occasion wasn't a happy one.

Their mother, Mrs. Clifford Peterson, 34, a former Omaha resident, was buried Friday afternoon, and their father, 38, was hospitalized in Honolulu.

Mrs. Peterson was one of two Navy wives killed in an auto accident Oct. 12. Her body arrived here Tuesday.

The children were sent to Omaha to make their home temporarily with Mr. and Mrs. Micek. Mrs. Micek is Mrs. Peterson's sister.

Peterson, who has been in service some 19 years, will be hospitalized for some time with injuries received in the crash.

The couple had been planning to return to Omaha soon.

Fund Allocation Held Up Pending Case Settlement

OMAHA (AP)—Douglas County officials have held up allocation of money paid by the Omaha Public Power District in lieu of property taxes, pending settlement of a court case which originated in Scottsbluff.

In the Scottsbluff case the Supreme Court is being asked to set out how the money paid in lieu of taxes by Consumers Public Power District, is to be distributed to various governmental subdivisions.

In Douglas County OPPD will pay $631,000 in lieu of real and personal taxes. OPPD already has paid $165,391 in lieu of first half personal property taxes.

Many View Special Loup City Library Display

More than 3,000 persons viewed a Book Week display which Harriet Gallaway, librarian at Loup City the past 15 years, set up in the basement of the city library. Each November the library has miniature constructions of scenes taken from children's story books. School children and adults came from Rockville, Ashton, Hazard, Litchfield, Ravenna, Farwell, St. Libory and Kearney and rural school children came from Sherman, Howard, Custer and Valley Counties to see the display and hear Miss Gallaway tell the stories depicted. Hard Luck Couple Find Friends Galore Even Though Strangers

OMAHA (AP)—For Robert Campbell, 25, and his wife, Donna, 20, Thanksgiving helped make up for a run of tough luck that climaxed earlier this week when the couple was innocently involved in a police case.

The story of the Campbells and their 9 months old son Ronnie was told in a Thursday morning newspaper story. By 7:30 a. m. the first stream of visitors arrived at the Campbell apartment and with them came:

35 Dinner Invitations

Thirty-five invitations to Thanksgiving dinners; seven chickens, three turkeys, four ducks as well as hams, roasts, chops and bacon; cash gifts totaling about $60; 100 pounds of potatoes; free baby-sitting services, and best of all, half-a-dozen job offers for Campbell.

A native of Colorado, Campbell is a Brahma bull rider during the rodeo season. His work on construction jobs here in the off-season has not been steady.

Rodeo Equipment Stolen

During the family's run of bad luck Campbell's rodeo equipment was stolen and both Mrs. Campbell and Ronnie were hospitalized. Then the Campbells had befriended a couple who turned out to be bad check passers. Police absolved the Campbells.

But things looked mighty different now.

"It's wonderful!" exclaimed Mrs. Campbell.

Jesuits Honor Retiring Cook

OMAHA (AP)—For the 6½ years James O. Cunningham cooked for the Jesuit community at Creighton University, he never missed a day on the job.

When Cunningham retired this week, the Jesuits surprised him with a dinner at which he was guest of honor.

The Very Rev. Carl Reinert, S.J., president of the university, sat at his side as Jim carved the big Thanksgiving fowl.

Stuart's Oldest Resident Reaches 103rd Anniversary

STUART, Neb. (AP)—Thanksgiving Day of 1954 was another milestone for Mrs. Alice Axtell, Stuart's oldest resident.

It was her 103rd birthday anniversary.

It was 74 years ago that Alice Butterfield came to Holt County with her parents in a covered wagon. She had come to the west for her health.

In 1887 she was married to Joseph Axtell, whom she survives.

Mrs. Axtell has always been able to keep busy but last winter she was injured in a fall and now is compelled to spend much of her time in a wheel chair. She makes her home with her daughter, Pearl.

4 Watersheds In State Ask SCS Plan Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—Four applications have been received from Nebraska for inclusion in the small watershed assistance program of the Soil Conservation Service.

Dr. Carl Brown, director of the planning division of the Soil Conservation Service, said they are from Brock watershed, Nemaha County; Wild Horse watershed, Morrill County; Antelope Creek watershed, Sheridan County; and Nine-Mile watershed in Scotts Bluff, Morrill and Sioux Counties.

Brown said some 170 applications have been received from various parts of the nation and indications are that the total may swell to 500 before next June 30.

Planning Purposes

Congress earlier this year appropriated $1,750,000 for pilot watershed projects. Most of the money probably will be used only for planning purposes, Brown said.

The money is in addition to 10½ million dollars appropriated by Congress during the past two years for work on the original 60 watershed projects, estimated to cost $18,706,000.

The work includes soil and water conservation measures such as contouring, building of small structures for flood control up to 5,000 acre feet capacity, channel improvements, drainage and other types of control measures.

Kittens, Pups Keep Maternity Ward Hustling

EDISON, Neb. (AP)—The improvised maternity ward at the C. B. Swayze home was in a state of confusion after the family cat, Tabby, gave birth to five kittens and Taffy, the cocker spaniel, became the mother of seven pups, the same night.

Tabby took exception to Taffy's efforts to baby sit for the whole lot, and when Taffy transferred the kittens to the puppies' bed, Tabby reclaimed her family. Taffy carried them back.

All the attention proved fatal to two of the new kittens and at that point the Swayzes stepped in to remove Tabby and her family from the glassed in porch that had served as a maternity ward to the washhouse.

Six Motherless Children Arrive At Kin's Home

OMAHA (AP)—Six youngsters, ranging in age from one to twelve years, arrived in Omaha by air Friday from Honolulu.

But the occasion wasn't a happy one.

Their mother, Mrs. Clifford Peterson, 34, a former Omaha resident, was buried Friday afternoon, and their father, 38, was hospitalized in Honolulu.

Mrs. Peterson was one of two Navy wives killed in an auto accident Oct. 12. Her body arrived here Tuesday.

The children were sent to Omaha to make their home temporarily with Mr. and Mrs. Micek. Mrs. Micek is Mrs. Peterson's sister.

Peterson, who has been in service some 19 years, will be hospitalized for some time with injuries received in the crash.

The couple had been planning to return to Omaha soon.

Fund Allocation Held Up Pending Case Settlement

OMAHA (AP)—Douglas County officials have held up allocation of money paid by the Omaha Public Power District in lieu of property taxes, pending settlement of a court case which originated in Scottsbluff.

In the Scottsbluff case the Supreme Court is being asked to set out how the money paid in lieu of taxes by Consumers Public Power District, is to be distributed to various governmental subdivisions.

In Douglas County OPPD will pay $631,000 in lieu of real and personal taxes. OPPD already has paid $165,391 in lieu of first half personal property taxes.

MISS VERA HAINSEY

Candlelight Service

Miss Lavina Oehlerking, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Oehlerking of Elmwood, became the bride of Loren Schwaninger, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Schwaninger of Hallam, at a candlelight ceremony solemnized Friday evening, Nov. 26. Lighted white candles and tall arrangements of gold and bronze chrysanthemums appointed the Chancel of Emmanuel Evangelical United Brethren Church at Murdoch for the service, which was read by the Rev. Armin Vogt of Eustis, assisted by the Rev. T. H. Kampman of Murdoch.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Mabel Luetchens sang "I Love You Truly," and "A Wedding Prayer," accompanied by Miss Edna Luetchens, organist. Miss Edna Luetchens also played the wedding music.

As the maid of honor, Miss Delphine Jewell of Enid, Okla., appeared in a floor-length frock of russet silk taffeta. A low, rounded neckline and brief scalloped sleeves accented the snug basque, and the skirt was caught into fullness. She wore a cap of matching taffeta and carried a colonial nosegay of gold and rust-toned pompons. Wearing identical ensembles in green taffeta were the bridesmatrons, Mrs. James Bang of Lincoln, and Mrs. Eldon Oehlerking of Elmwood, who also carried nosegays of pompons.

Frocked in yellow taffeta were the flower girls, Miss Lanyce Schwaninger of Hallam and Miss Connie Jensen of Avoca, nieces of the bridegroom, and the bride's cousins, Miss Margaret Vogt of Wabash and Miss Lila Oehlerking of Bellevue, who lighted the candles.

White satin touched with imported lace fashioned the bride's period gown. Designed with long, fitted sleeves, the bodice of lace over satin was closed by a row of lace-covered buttons from the high, standing collar to the narrow waist, and the lace motif was repeated in panels to trim the full skirt of satin. A tiara of pearls and iridescent sequins held her illusion veil, and she carried a white Bible marked by a single white orchid.

Victor Schwaninger served his brother as best man, and the ushers were Curtis Schwaninger of Hallam, cousin of the bridegroom, Eldon Oehlerking of Elmwood, brother of the bride, and Floyd Vogt of Wabash.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents following the 7 o'clock ceremony. Upon their return from a wedding trip to the Ozarks, Mr. and Mrs. Schwaninger will reside in Princeton.

The bride is a graduate of Bryan Memorial Hospital School of Nursing.

NEWS AROUND TOWN

WITH its impending departure so near at hand a reluctant November seemed a bit downcast on Friday, but was cheery enough this morning — as far as the news was concerned, that is—The Saturday dawn brought us word from a popular bride-elect—told us of a party for an out of town guest—and added more names to the guest book—

THE bride-elect we had in mind is Miss Earlene Luff whose marriage to Alfred Knox does not take place until Feb. 19, but for whom prenuptial courtesies already have been planned.

On Saturday, Dec. 4, Miss Luff will be honored when Mrs. Hugh Sherwood and Mrs. J.O. Weyand of Hastings, are coffee hostesses at the home of Mrs. Sherwood. Fifteen guests have been invited, and the bride-to-be will be presented with a hostess gift.

BUT THIS morning there is a coffee for an out of town guest —Hostess-ing the 10:30 o'clock affair will be Mrs. Floyd Wilson who is complimenting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ernest Wilson of Worcester, Mass., who, with Mr. Wilson, is spending the Thanksgiving period in Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, who since their arrival last Tuesday, have been the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl R. Wilson, will be the week-end guests of Mrs. Floyd Wilson.

OUR guest list, current and potential, includes a number of people from here and there—Learned, for instance, that the Shattuck School brigade, composed of Bob Ireland, son of Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Ireland; Bob Johnston, son of Dr. and Mrs. Glenn Johnston; Mike Munger, son of Dr. and Mrs. Horace V. Munger, and Edward Sickel, III, of Saratoga, Calif., grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Sickel of Lincoln, is in town for the Thanksgiving holiday period.

AND WE heard that other guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. V. Munger on Thursday were Mrs. Munger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Buol of Randolph.

SPENDING the week-end in Lincoln is Miss Jeanne Hyland who came from Colorado Springs, where she is a member of the public school faculty, in time to be the Thanksgiving guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hyland.

THEN we learned that Mrs. Stanley G. Zemer has had house guests — her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Golan and their children, Fred and Stephanie, who returned to their home in Omaha on Friday after a week's stay in Lincoln.

Joining the family group for Thanksgiving dinner at the home of Mrs. Zemer, were another son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Doran Hildebrand and their three children, Virginia, Chuck and Billy.

MONDAY, so we hear, is the day that Mrs. Thomas J. Doyle arrives to join Capt. Doyle, USN (ret.) at the home of his mother, Mrs. T. J. Doyle, and his sister, Mrs. Rolfe Halligan.

Capt. Doyle arrived from Bristol, Tenn., several days ago to spend Thanksgiving with his family, and Mrs. Doyle stopped off in Indianapolis to be the Thanksgiving guest of her mother.

Capt. and Mrs. Doyle will leave in mid-December for California where they will spend the Christmas holidays.

FOUND more week-end guests just now—Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Rezner and their children, Barbara and Bob, have come from Denver to spend the week end as the guests of Mrs. Rezner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Harris.

MISS SHEILA MAY SIREN, whose marriage to Willam Lloyd Mitchell will take place Saturday morning, Nov. 27.

MISS RITCHIE BALDWIN

To Be Brides At Late November Ceremonies

Arrangements of chrysanthemums shading from gold to deep bronze and russet tones will appoint the altar and chancel of St. Teresa Church Saturday morning, Nov. 27, for the marriage of Miss Sheila May Siren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Siren of Bismarck, N. D., formerly of Lincoln, and William Lloyd Mitchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd E. Mitchell. The 11:30 o'clock service will be solemnized by the Rev. M. M. Kaczmarek.

The wedding music will be played by Miss Mildred Gergen.

Frocked identically in bronze-toned crystalette will be the maid of honor, Miss Ruth Scott, and the bridesmaids, Miss Diane Benedict of Jefferson, Ia., and Miss Jane Culwell. Fashioned with drop-shoulder necklines draped to form brief cap sleeves, the motif of tuckiing on the snug bodices is repeated on the full, waltz-length skirts. They will wear brow veils of matching illusion, caught at the back with chignon clusters of tiny yellow pompons, and will carry colonial arrangements of the gold blossoms. The bride's sister, Miss Kathleen Siren, will be the flower girl, and the ringbearer will be Kenneth Siren, brother of the bride.

For her wedding, the bride has chosen a gown of white silk tulle over taffeta. The molded bodice of shirred tulle is designed with a wide V neckline edged with a narrow banding of imported lace which is repeated on the brief, shirred sleeves. Drifts of tulle, trimmed with insertions of the lace, form the wide danseuse-length skirt, and her veil of illusion will be held by a coronet of seed pearls and iridescent paillettes. She will carry a cascade of white orchids and stephanotis.

Serving Mr. Mitchell as best man will be Michael Edwards, Jr., and seating the guests will be Richard Skold, Jr., and Shane Siren of Bismark, N. D., brother of the bride.

After a reception, held in the church parlors, the couple will leave for Jacksonville, N. C.

The bride is a former student at the University of Nebraska and is a member of Alpha Xi Delta sorority.

The marriage of Miss Ritchie Baldwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morton Baldwin of Worthington, O., formerly of Hebron, and Robert R. Teach, son of Mrs. Frank A. Teach of Columbus, O., and the late Mr. Teach, will be solemnized on Saturday, Nov. 27, at the Presbyterian Church in Worthington.

The bride-to-be, who is the niece of W. O. Baldwin of Hebron and the God-daughter and namesake of William Ritchie of Omaha, has attended Ohio State University and is a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority.

A former student at Otterbein College in Ohio, Mr. Teach has served two years with the armed forces.

A tiara of pearls and iridescent sequins held her illusion veil, and she carried a white Bible marked by a single white orchid.

Victor Schwaninger served his brother as best man, and the ushers were Curtis Schwaninger of Hallam, cousin of the bridegroom, Eldon Oehlerking of Elmwood, brother of the bride, and Floyd Vogt of Wabash.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents following the 7 o'clock ceremony. Upon their return from a wedding trip to the Ozarks, Mr. and Mrs. Schwaninger will reside in Princeton.

The bride is a graduate of Bryan Memorial Hospital School of Nursing.

MISS SHEILA MAY SIREN, whose marriage to Willam Lloyd Mitchell will take place Saturday morning, Nov. 27.

MISS RITCHIE BALDWIN

To Be Brides At Late November Ceremonies

Arrangements of chrysanthemums shading from gold to deep bronze and russet tones will appoint the altar and chancel of St. Teresa Church Saturday morning, Nov. 27, for the marriage of Miss Sheila May Siren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Siren of Bismarck, N. D., formerly of Lincoln, and William Lloyd Mitchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd E. Mitchell. The 11:30 o'clock service will be solemnized by the Rev. M. M. Kaczmarek.

The wedding music will be played by Miss Mildred Gergen.

Frocked identically in bronze-toned crystalette will be the maid of honor, Miss Ruth Scott, and the bridesmaids, Miss Diane Benedict of Jefferson, Ia., and Miss Jane Culwell. Fashioned with drop-shoulder necklines draped to form brief cap sleeves, the motif of tuckiing on the snug bodices is repeated on the full, waltz-length skirts. They will wear brow veils of matching illusion, caught at the back with chignon clusters of tiny yellow pompons, and will carry colonial arrangements of the gold blossoms. The bride's sister, Miss Kathleen Siren, will be the flower girl, and the ringbearer will be Kenneth Siren, brother of the bride.

For her wedding, the bride has chosen a gown of white silk tulle over taffeta. The molded bodice of shirred tulle is designed with a wide V neckline edged with a narrow banding of imported lace which is repeated on the brief, shirred sleeves. Drifts of tulle, trimmed with insertions of the lace, form the wide danseuse-length skirt, and her veil of illusion will be held by a coronet of seed pearls and iridescent paillettes. She will carry a cascade of white orchids and stephanotis.

Serving Mr. Mitchell as best man will be Michael Edwards, Jr., and seating the guests will be Richard Skold, Jr., and Shane Siren of Bismark, N. D., brother of the bride.

After a reception, held in the church parlors, the couple will leave for Jacksonville, N. C.

The bride is a former student at the University of Nebraska and is a member of Alpha Xi Delta sorority.

The marriage of Miss Ritchie Baldwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morton Baldwin of Worthington, O., formerly of Hebron, and Robert R. Teach, son of Mrs. Frank A. Teach of Columbus, O., and the late Mr. Teach, will be solemnized on Saturday, Nov. 27, at the Presbyterian Church in Worthington.

The bride-to-be, who is the niece of W. O. Baldwin of Hebron and the God-daughter and namesake of William Ritchie of Omaha, has attended Ohio State University and is a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority.

A former student at Otterbein College in Ohio, Mr. Teach has served two years with the armed forces.

Has Reunion

The members of a former bridge group in Tobias held a reunion on Sunday at the Compass Room at the Air Port.

Attending the affair were Mr. and Mrs. William Mead, Bruning; Mr. and Mrs. John Mead, Beatrice; Dr. and Mrs. C. Lester Littel, Teaneck, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Mates, Wahoo; Mr. and Mrs. John Phingston and their daughter, Shirley; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Willeford and Miss Daisy Bucher, all of Tobias.

Lincoln members of the group were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dayton, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Gibb, Mrs. Sidney Mumaw, Mrs. Henry Clark, Mrs. Clint Tinstman, and Mrs. Harold Quimby and her daughter, Jane.

The Brides' Book Says:

A bride-elect of the near future, Miss Sharon Dee Smith has announced the members of her bridal party. Her maid of honor will be Miss Janis Jones, and Miss Vonda Bottcher will be the bridesmaid. Attending her sister as junior bridesmaid will be Miss Marcia Smith, and Timothy Mowrey will be ringbearer.

Don Bloom will serve as best man, and included among the ushers will be Bob Smith, brother of the bride-elect.

The marriage of Miss Smith and Jack J. Caldwell will take place on Saturday afternoon, Dec. 11, and will be solemnized in the chapel of Westminster Presbyterian Church.

On Tuesday evening, Dec. 7, the bride-to-be will be the honored guest at a miscellaneous shower and dessert supper for which Mrs. Richard Totten will be hostess

Miss Shirley Ann Sukstorf, who will become the bride of Ronald Rauscher on Sunday, Dec. 12, this morning is announcing the members of her bridal party. As her maid of honor, the bride-to-be has chosen Miss Corinne Rauscher, and her bridesmaids will be Miss Joan Vecsh of Norfolk, Miss Phyllis Knerl of Beatrice, and Mrs. Darrell Rohman of Wahoo.

Lighting the candles preceding the 3:30 o'clock ceremony, to be solemnized at St. Matthews Lutheran Church at Cedar Bluffs, will be Miss Sharon Behrens of Colon, and Miss Kay Sukstrorf of Cedar Bluffs.

Harris Rauscher will serve as best man, and seating the guests will be Darrell Rohman of Wahoo, Don Hile and Vern Herngren.

'Good Old Days Are Gone, Men'

Now Hear This! No More Swapping For Oriental Temptations, Says Navy

WASHINGTON (AP)— The Navy has started a new crackdown on laxity aboard ships and among American crews in Hong Kong and other Asian ports that has brought reports of American equipment leading into Red China.

The Navy disclosed its action Friday in the wake of an Associated Press story from Hong Kong reporting that gullible or dishonest American sailors were trading equipment for curios, liquor, women and possibly some narcotics.

The Navy Department said here that about three weeks ago special investigators were dispatched from the Far East Command to Hong Kong.

Stern Message

Adm. Robert B. Carney, chief of naval operations, followed up this week by sending a stern message to all of his commanders and officers in the Western Pacific warning them of their responsibility to "comport themselves not only with legality, but also with dignity, discretion, and good taste."

Carney reminded his commanders that the good old days of the prewar Asiatic station tours of duty were things of the past.

He was referring to the custom in the Orient of permitting native merchants and hawkers to come aboard ships and spread out their wares to be bargained for by both officers and seamen.

Pilfering

Pilfering from ships has been a recurring problem. The Navy said, in answer to inquiries here, that about two years ago investigation revealed the disappearance from ships' stores of such items as Diesel engine spray nozzles and other spare parts which apparently had been stolen by visiting hawkers with the aid of sailors. Such spare parts brought premium prices along the China Coast because the Communists needed them for equipment they had captured when the Nationalists were driven from the mainland to Formosa.

The Far East command early in 1953 ordered all its ships visiting Hong Kong to prohibit boarding except by a limited number of old and established merchants. As time went on the enforcement of that order became increasingly difficult and a flat ban was issued against any native merchants boarding U.S. ships in Hong Kong.

Narcotics

The Navy said also that it had received reports in the past that Chinese hawkers, tavern keepers and others had used narcotics to pay for pieces of equipment taken ashore by American sailors on liberty. The Navy said courses of education against the evils of narcotics were intensified among the crews going into Asiatic ports and the problem continued to receive the attention of naval authorities.

The situation in Hong Kong that brought about the latest crackdown is described in the following dispatch from AP Correspondent David J. Roades:

War material, mostly spare parts, is leaking into Red China from ships of the U.S. Navy.

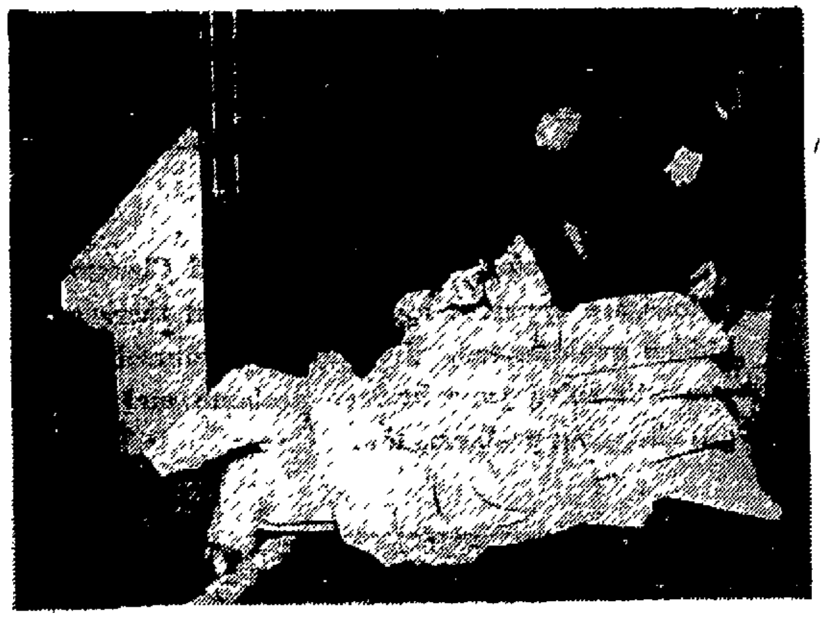
It is being bought and sold almost daily for a few bucks and a couple of beers from sailors whose sense of rectitude is dulled by desire for a few more Chinese curios or a few extra hours in the pleasure spots of this Oriental leave port.

Mixed Up Command

A mixed-up command system is usually blamed. Hong Kong police say privately they can't do much about it because by the time they have evidence enough to make a pinch, ship and culprit have sailed away.

Dishonest or gullible seamen soon learn that they can get a suit of clothes or an ivory curio for a certain valve from their ship that wasn't too hard to get. And they learn as readily that Chinese on shore want such items, and are ready to offer as bait liquor, girls and even narcotics. Sometimes the sailors find themselves heavily indebted to the merchants and agents so they square the account with a few pieces of gear from their ship.

Lately the order banning hawkers from the ships has gradually loosened and now they swarm aboard again. (This apparently was written before the latest ban on hawkers.)



COMMUTER'S CASUAL AGONY

Francis Collins, 43, his leg twisted between subway car and station platform in New York City, smokes a cigarette with a nonchalance he probably didn't feel as a policeman studies the situation for a way to release him. Service on the line was held up 38 minutes as an emergency squad, using a huge jack and heavy bar, bent the car's side, freeing his leg. Police said he apparently slipped on the wet platform seriously injuring his leg. Collins was in fair condition after being taken to the hospital. (AP Wirephoto.)

Fiery Vishinsky Gets Red Salute

MOSCOW (AP)—Cannons boomed a farewell salute to Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky Friday as Premier Georgi Malenkov and other top Soviet leaders placed an urn containing his ashes in a Communist hero's niche in the Kremlin wall.

The massive state funeral honoring the fiery orator and chief Soviet delegate in the United Nations lasted less than a half hour in cold, wind-swept Red Square. Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov delivered the funeral oration from atop the Lenin-Stalin Tomb where he stood with other fur-coated government chiefs.

Below them the flower-covered urn rested on a catafalque draped in red and black. The body of Vishinsky, who died Monday in New York at the age of 70, was cremated earlier in the day.

Cardinal Guevara Dies In Peru After Lengthy Illness

Lima, Peru (AP)— Juan Gualberto Cardinal Guevara, 72, archbishop of Lima and Roman Catholic primate of Peru, died Friday after a long illness.

Coadjustor Archbishop Juan Landazuri will replace him temporarily and preside over the coming National Eucharistic Congress here.

Cardinal Guevara's death reduces the College of Cardinals of the Roman Catholic Church to 64. Its full strength is 70. Cardinal Guevara was elevated to the College in February, 1946, but was too ill at that time to go to Rome for the consistory and received his cardinal's ring at a later ceremony. The following year, however, he had recovered sufficiently to attend a Eucharistic Congress in Buffalo, N. Y.

Elder Smith

Elder Smith, who succeeded former president, Elder M. V. Campbell, will speak on "The Christian's Individual Responsibility."

Prior to his election to the Central Union post, Elder Smith was president of the Northern Union Conference with headquarters in Minneapolis. Elder Campbell is now president of the Southern European Division of the church.

New Advisory Group Planned

A resolution for the formation of a new technical advisory committee will be submitted to the City Council Monday by Mayor Clark Jeary.

Jeary will be out of the city for the meeting but will have the measure drafted ahead of time and will give the Council his written approval of the committee. Establishment of the new group was recommended by the City Planning Commission.

The job of this committee, Jeary said, will be to keep all parties concerned advised of developments that might affect them. Membership of the committee as proposed by Jeary will include the heads of all city departments and school district, Sanitary District and county.

If any of the four governmental subdivisions are planning changes or improvements that would have an effect on another divisions work, this committee would let such activity be known by all concerned. The group would act like a clearing house for all activities.

Wayne-Wakefield Plan Opposed

Opposition to the recommendations of the State Highway Advisory Commission on the location of Nebr. 35 between Wayne and Wakefield was voiced Friday by C. B. Misfeldt, chairman of the Wayne section, in a telegram to Gov. Robert Crosby.

The Norfolk man urged that the governor "take a firm stand" against the opposition of the commission to the relocation being advocated by State Engineer L. N. Ress.

Misfeldt said there will be continued delays in the highway building program "if public sentiment is allowed to rule in road building plans."

Woman Puts $10,000 In Bank Nephew Stripped Of Money

CLIO, Ala. (AP)— In a joyous mood but with prayers for divine guidance, the townspeople of Clio opened a new bank on the site of the one which almost dragged down to ruin nine months ago.

The first depositor at the Peoples Bank was a wealthy widow, Mrs. Vela Mae Reynolds, who last more than $23,000 when the privately operated Clio Merchants Exchange collapsed after President Royall Reynolds' disappearance March 7.

Mrs. Reynolds, an aunt of the former money-handler, opened her account in the new government-insured bank with a deposit of $10,000 and expressed complete faith in the new institution.

Nephew Took Cash

Her nephew took all of the cash in the old Merchants Exchange with him when he left Clio unannounced last winter, bringing near-panic to his neighbors in the small south Alabama farming town.

An audit of the books after he returned two weeks later showed a shortage of $76,000. Although Reynolds and members of his family promised to make good all but about 10 per cent of the deficit, he was indicted for embezzlement and is still awaiting trial.

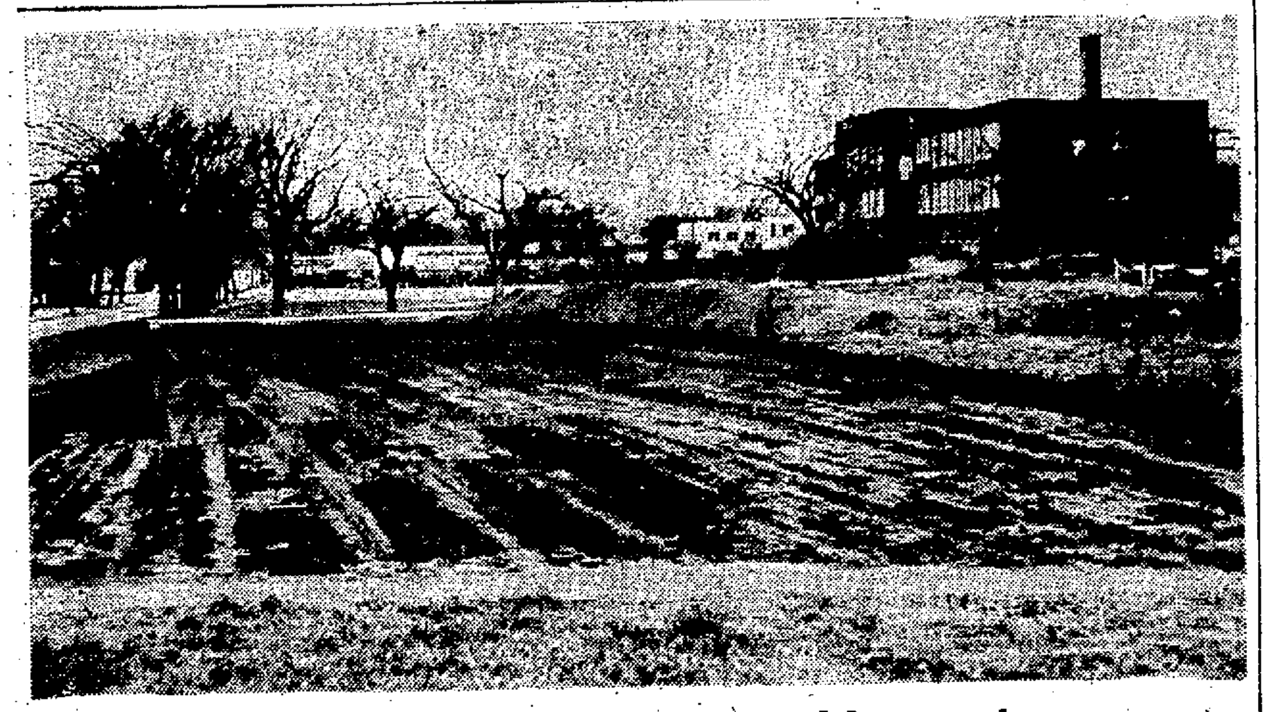
Floral greetings from fellow bankers in nearby communities and as far away as Atlanta, Birmingham and Montgomery gave a cheerful note to the formal opening of the new bank, capitalized at $52,500.

State Banking Director Joe Williams of Montgomery officially opened the doors at 9 a.m. by cutting a ribbon stretched across the front of the building. A line of depositors had started forming an hour earlier.

The Rev. William Griggs, pastor of the Clio Methodist Church, led the depositors and onlookers in prayer.

Mayor Dan Easterling, the 30-year-old president of the new bank, and a leader in the negotiations which brought about a settlement of the affairs of the defunct Merchants Exchange, predicted a solid future for the new depository.

Unlike the old check-cashing agency which offered its customers no security, the bank was chartered under state banking laws and with Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation insurance on deposits up to $10,000.



All They Need Now Is Cold Weather

A new ice skating pond located on Holdrege between 67th and 68th is now completed and the city will supply water for the winter play area. The pond was built under the sponsorship of the Bethany Church and the Lions Club. (Star Photo.)

Army, Navy Rated Even In Battle Of Offensive Giants

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Army and Navy, the naton's greatest offensive football teams meet today in a game that figures to be so close and unpredictable that even a scoreless tie wouldn't be too big a surprise.

Off the records, it should be an exciting, free-scoring game between two teams that have averaged better than 30 points a game. But the only certainty is that the teams will play their hearts out before some 105,000 spectators in jam-packed Municipal Stadium.

This colorful spectacle always is a sellout, usually before the season opens, and this year the interest has mounted amazingly as the Cadets and Midshipmen have compiled two of the best records in Eastern football.

The fact that the Eastern college championship likely will be decided is a matter of minor importance. This is a game of national appeal, heightened by the fact that it will be televised nationally as the NCAA Game of the Week and broadcast to overseas military and Naval installations as well as in the United States.

The kickoff is scheduled for 12:30 p.m. (CST) but the spectacle starts at noon when the 2,400 grey-clad members of Army's corps of Cadets march into the big stadium. The regiment of Midshipmen, 3,600 strong—hosts for this year's game—will parade in about 20 minutes later. The forecast is cloudy and cool, with afternoon temperatures in the 40's.

For the first time since 1923, there's a possibility that the Army-Navy contest may have a bearing on one of the New Year's Day bowl games. Navy has had feelers from the Sugar Bowl and Cotton Bowl and, while there has been no formal expression, indications are that the attitude at Annapolis is favorable to acceptance. It was learned reliably Friday that a statement probably will be made right after today's game. If Navy should win, or even tie, it might be an acceptance. Navy played Washington in the Rose Bowl after the 1923 season.

Army, winner of seven games since its opening loss to South Carolina, is a slight favorite. The odds-makers put the margin at four points. But there's no obvious reason for this favoritism. They're look-alike teams with explosive speed and almost equal records. Navy has won 6 games and lost 2—by margins of a couple of missed points after touchdowns and by a goal-line fumble.

Army is ranked fifth and Navy sixth in this week's Associated Press poll.

The statistics, admittedly fattened by picking on the same puny opponents, show Army first among the nation's major colleges in total offense and Navy second. On defense Navy is first and Army somewhere down the line. Each team has averaged over 400 yards a game on offense.

Irish Two-TD Choice Over Southern Cal

By JERRY LISKA

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—If Southern California can find any comfort in meeting Notre Dame today it may be in knowing things won't be much rougher in the Rose Bowl against Ohio State.

The Trojans are in the midst of running the gantlet against three of the nation's top four teams in the Associated Press poll.

Unfortunately for Jess Hill's men of Troy, it can be presumed fourth-ranked Notre Dame will try to improve on a 34-0 drubbing handed USC last Saturday by second-ranked UCLA and leave top-ranked Ohio State something to shoot for on New Year's Day.

The Irish last Saturday turned in a peak performance with a 34-18 trimming of Iowa.

Although Notre Dame, a two-touchdown favorite against the twice-defeated Trojans, doesn't end its season until the following Saturday against Southern Methodist, The AP's final poll comes after today's play.

At present, Ohio State, UCLA and Oklahoma rank ahead of once-beaten Notre Dame.

The Irish were riddled by Len Dawson's four-touchdown passing in a 27-14 loss to Purdue Oct. 2. They have defeated Texas, Pittsburgh, Michigan State, Navy, Penn, North Carolina and Iowa. Southern California's other defeat, against eight victories, was a 20-7 upending by Texas Christian.

Southern California's hopes for an upset today are based on speed and squad depth. But such Trojan gallopers as Aramis Dandoy, Lindon Crow and Jon Arnett can't show any more speed than Iowa's Earl Smith and Eddie Vincent, who were well shackled by the Irish.

Despite a lack of reserves, Notre Dame has proved hard to wear down.

Notre Dame has 10 players who have averaged between 40 and 45 minutes per game for eight contests. They are headed by end Paul Matz with 340 minutes, tackle Frank Varrichione with 339 and quarterback Ralph Guglielmi with 336.

To The Victor Go The Spoils

Cornhuskers Find Pot Of Gold At End Of Regular Season Slate

From Press Dispatches

HONOLULU, T.H.—Nebraska's Orange Bowl Cornhuskers concluded their regular season here Friday night, completely overpowering an undermanned University of Hawaii team, 50-0.

Dead game, but no match for the Big Seven's Huskers, the Hawaiian Rainbows dented Nebraska territory only twice, while the visitors from the States racked up seven touchdowns and a pair of PAT's.

Coach Bill Glassford used the Rainbow tilt to give his subs the maximum of work and he constantly shifted personnel.

Longest runs of the evening on Oahu were recorded by Ron Clark, Don Comstock, Willie Greenlaw, and Captain Dirkes Rolston. Clark and Greenlaw made only token appearances, but they added 78 and 50 yard touchdown runs.

The story of the Nebraska victory is clearly presented in the statistics. Nebraska outdowned the Rainbows, 19-7, and rolled for 542 yards on the ground and 106 in the air for an amazing total of 648 total net yards. Hawaii made only 128 yards on the ground and 18 yards through the air.

Solons Honored

Friday night's contest was dedicated to the memory of Hawaii's late delegate to Congress, Joseph R. Farrington, and two senators from Nebraska, Hugh Butler and Dwight Griswold.

The Huskers struck early in the first quarter and never let up.

With the game only about four minutes old, after a pair of backfield-in-motion penalties put the Huskers in a hole, Sophomore Don Comstock cut around his own right end with a pitchout from Dan Brown and sprinted 68 yards to score.

John Edwards booted the point and the Cornhuskers were off to the races.

A minute later, the Huskers recovered a fumble on the Hawaii 27 and three line bucks later, Comstock again tallied to make it 13-0.

The Rainbows couldn't budge the Nebraska defenses, but on the next series of downs the Hawaiians wouldn't let the Cornhuskers move and forced a punt. The ball hit a Rainbow's foot and Nebraska recovered, but Hawaii stopped the Husker threat by recovering a NU bobble on the 20.

Proud Parents

Early in the second quarter, on the strength of some fine running by Valley's Harry Johnson, Nebraska moved to the five, from where Johnson — whose parents were in the stands—blasted over. Don Erway converted and it was 20-0.

A 41-yard pass from Erway to LeRoy Butherus set up the next Husker tally. After Sylvester Harris was stopped a foot short of the goal on fourth down the Rainbows took over, Bill Taylor pounced on a fumble on the two.

Brown then plunged for the tally.

Hawaii took the kickoff and started passing—with Fred Kawawaki doing the tossing—but the Huskers forced a punt and marched to another touchdown with only eight seconds left in the half.

Passes from Brown to Leo Scherer and Ted Westervelt put the ball on the Hawaii 14. Brown faded to pass as the clock was running out, couldn't spot a receiver, and dashed to his right to score and the Huskers left the field, leading 32-0.

In the third quarter, Glassford kept shuffling the Nebraska lineup and the Huskers scored only once, but that TD was the dandy of the evening.

Hawaii had punted to the Nebraska 17 and Fullback Bob Smith—on his only play—picked up five yards before Ron Clark—on his only play—took a pitchout and sprinted 78 yards to make the score 38-0.

A short while later, the Rainbows punted and Dirkes Rolston returned to the Hawaii 49, with the aid of a bruising block by John Edwards. Rolston, the game captain, then dashed to the 37, and Harris shot through to the 23 but fumbled and the Rainbows recovered.

Late in the third period, the Hawaiians opened a concentrated aerial attack, with Sub Quarterback Fred Nagato doing the flipping and Dick Ueoka doing the catching. The drive moved to the Nebraska 17.

This was the first time the Ranbows had penetrated Husker territory and it looked like they might dent the scoring column, but Nebraska's defense was too strong and the visitors took over.

Fourth quarter action saw the Huskers moving backwards before Willie Greenlaw, the sophomore halfback who was injured at Oklahoma, entered the game for two plays.

But those two plays made the score 44-0. After the Cornhuskers were penalized 30 yards to the NU 20, Willie cut through the line for 30 yards to the 50 and on the next play, took a pitch from Don Margheim and went all the way.

Late in the final quarter Hawaii, paced by the brilliant Kawawaki, drove to the NU 20, but Jon McWilliams dropped Dick Hadama for a seven-yard loss and after an incomplete pass, the Huskers took over again.

With Rex Fischer at quarterback—he had played right halfback earlier—the Cornhuskers edged to the 44 before being penalized 15 yards. Then Rolston went to work, picking up eight and them scampering 64-yards for the final touchdown.

Actually, the game was only a warmup for the Orange Bowl where the Huskers meet either Duke or Maryland on New Year's Day. But there will be four more days of fun for the boys from Nebraska and they are expected to make the most of it.

New York-Oriole Trade Said Still Unfinished

BALTIMORE (AP) — Three Yankee farmhands were reported headed for Baltimore Friday and "five or six" Orioles were said to be bound for New York in what would be the windup of last week's million-dollar deal.

Informed sources said:

1. That third baseman Kal Segrist, pitcher Bill Miller and second Baseman Don Leppert were slated for transfer to the Orioles to complete the first part of the controversial three-for-nine deal.

2. That the deal would wind up a nine-for-nine affair, with five or six Oriole fledglings and farm players going to the Yankees.

Oriole President Clarence W. Miles and Manager-General Manager Paul Richards refused to comment on the reports.

N.Y. Officials Mum

In New York, a Yankee spokesman said he would neither deny nor confirm the three players named as headed for Baltimore. He added, however, that the deal has not yet been completed and would not be "for several more days" when "several waivers are obtained on several players."

When the Yanks-Orioles deal was announced, spokesmen for the two clubs said three more players belonging to the Yankees would be sent to Baltimore "at a later date." The date was not given.

In the million-dollar transaction — biggest in baseball history — the Orioles gave up pitchers Bob Turley and Don Larsen and shortstop Billy Hunter. In exchange they received outfielder Gene Woodling, catcher Hal Smith, catcher-first baseman Gus Triandos, shortstop Willie Miranda, pitchers Harry Byrd and Jim McDonald.

More Players Involved?

Friday night, Lou Hatter, Baltimore Sun Baseball writer, reported he had further learned, from a source in New York, that "the transaction may involve 17 or 18 players, with five or six birds still due the Yanks, before all the paper work on baseball's biggest deal is completed."

These are expected to come from a group of Orioles that includes pitchers Lou Kretlow, who won 6 and lost 11 last season; Mike Blyzka, 1-5, and Frank Fanovich 5-8 at Richmond; catcher Ray Murray, a .254 hitter; catcher Darrell Johnson, .252 at Richmond; first-baseman Dick Kryhoski, .260 and outfielder Jim Fridley, .247.

Oklahoma Meets Aggies

Duke Seeks Berth Against Nebraska

By The Associated Press

Six invitations to rich bowl games Jan. 1 will be up for grabs Saturday as college football bows out with a small but select list of traditional games.

The bowl bid atmosphere even extends to the highlight of the day, the Army-Navy clash at Philadelphia before a sellout crowd of 105,000, plus uncounted watchers on the nation's TV sets.

Both service academies traditionally are cold to invitations from bowl sponsors, but Sugar Bowl officials still say Navy is under consideration for the New Orleans game. Academy officials have neither confirmed nor denied bowl talk.

Rebels Wanted for Sugar

But Sugar Bowl officials are quite frank to say Mississippi will be one of their teams Jan. 1—if the Rebels can wrap up the Southeastern State Conference title by whipping troublesome Mississippi State. Ole' Miss, ranked seventh this week in the semifinal Associated Press rankings, was knocked out of the bowls last year when State gained a 7-7 tie. The Rebs' only loss this season was to Arkansas.

Baylor, No. 9 team in the country, will have two goals in its battle with Rice: A tie with Arkansas as Southwest Conference champion and a Sugar Bowl berth. A Baylor victory would give the Bears a 5-1 conference mark equal to Arkansas' record, but Arkansas gets the Cotton Bowl assignment because of an early season 21-20 squeaker over Baylor.

Arkansas in Sump

Arkansas, knocked down to the No. 13 spot after successive losses to Southern Methodist and Louisiana State, will try to climb back into the Top Ten at Houston's expense.

Arkansas' opponent on Jan. 1 could well be Georgia Tech, a veteran bowl team which closes its season against Georgia, an old, bitter rival. If Mississippi should lose out in the Sugar Bowl scramble, Georgia Tech would be a prime candidate to succeed the Rebels, and Mississippi could wind up in the Cotton Bowl.

Other bowl possibilities are West Virginia, No. 12, which closes out against Virginia still trying to live down its flop in last year's Sugar Bowl; Auburn, No. 15, which meets Alabama, and Kentucky, No. 18, which concluded its season last week with five straight victories after a slow start.

Duke After Old Rival

Duke hopes to clinch a spot in the Orange Bowl opposite Nebraska by trouncing old rival North Carolina. The Blue Devils have a 3-0 mark in the Atlantic Conference compared to Maryland's 4-0-1. A committee picks the bowl representative.

Maryland's tremendous exhibition of power, speed and finesse in a 74-13 humbling of Missouri before a nationwide TV audience Thursday kept the Terrapins, No. 10 team, in the running for the Orange Bowl.

The loser in the Orange Bowl voting automatically becomes a hot prospect for the Gator Bowl.

Gator Possibilities

Wichita, which won its first Missouri Valley Conference title Thursday; West Virginia, Auburn, Kentucky and Penn State, No. 19 nationally, are other gator possibilities.

The Rose Bowl, of course, is all set with Ohio State, the nation's top-ranked team, against twice-beaten Southern California. Fourth-ranked Notre Dame, which has beaten USC at South Bend every time since 1939, is expected to do it again Saturday and further tarnish the Trojans' record.

Ohio State and UCLA, the No. 2 team, have finished their regular schedules undefeated. Oklahoma, No. 3, is expected to join them by walloping Oklahoma A&M for the Sooners' 19th straight victory over a two-year span.

UCLA Sooners Idle Jan. 1

Oklahoma already has clinched the Big Seven championship, but is ineligible to return to the Orange Bowl because it played there last Jan. 1. UCLA is out of the Rose Bowl for the same reason.

Even though possible Jan. 1 invitations will not be at stake, the rest of today's games will be just as hard-fought, thanks to traditions which generally are at least as good as "bowl fever" for raising the temperatures of the players.

Around the Nation - Fever

In the East its Holy Cross vs. Boston College and Fordham vs. Villanova. Down South they turn out any how for Tennessee vs. Vanderbilt, Louisiana State vs. Tulane, The Citadel vs. Clemson and Wake Forest vs. South Carolina.

The Southwest has the TCU-SMU alphabetical clash, which doesn't need the Cotton Bowl to generate excitement, plus Texas Tech against Hardin-Simmons.

Wyoming-Arizona and New Mexico-San Jose wind up the Far West excitement for the year.

Pampas' Perez Wins Flyweight Crown

TOKYO, (Saturday), (AP)—Pascual Perez, a tiny terrier from Argentina, bashed world flyweight champion Yoshio Shirai of Japan into dazed submission last night and became the first man from the land of the Pampas ever to wear a world boxing crown.

The little bull-necked battler, with a whirlwind finish, took boxing's smallest title from the Japanese in a vigorous 15-round outdoor bout in 55-degree weather. Perez was outweighed 101½ to 107¾ and had a five-inch disadvantage in reach. But he packed the stamina and power.

Perez floored Shirai with a vicious left uppercut in the 12th round and battered him around the ring at will in the last four rounds to overcome a substantial early lead by the heavier, rangier Shirai.

"I'm Sorry"—Shirai

Shirai had no excuses. Thoroughly beaten, he told his American manager when the verdict was announced: "I'm very sorry." The manager, Dr. Avlin Cahn, said: "Even a champion must lose sometime."

The decision was unanimous. U.S. Army Maj. Jack Sullivan, referee, scored it 146-139 under Japan's point system. Judge Bill Pachecho of Hawaii had it 143-139. Judge Kuniharu Hayashi of Japan had it 146-134, all for Perez. The Associated Press had it 143-140 for Perez.

A rematch was percolating. Cahn said flatly: "There will be a rematch in Tokyo within six months."

Perez said he would fight Shirai again, "any time, any place, any where.

A Fighting Champion

"I intend to be a fighting champion, and I'll give everyone a chance at the title." He said this included Leo Espinosa of The Philippines, rated Shirai's No. 1 challenger before the fight.

The jubilant winner dashed to a ringside microphone right after his hand was raised and shouted to the crowd:

"I won for Peron. I won for my country. I won for Argentina."

Shirai said he could not focus his eyes on his little fist-slinging opponent after the 12th round knockdown.

"I couldn't see him," he lamented. "Sometimes he would be in focus and sometimes he's fade away."

Bout Jammed With Action

Shirai said an unintentional butt he received in the ninth also bothered him although he wasn't cut.

The bout was jammed with action. The figters threw punches throughout. Shirai, 31, was a stumbling wreck at the end, but Perez, 27, looked fresh.

Shirai used his height and weight margin to advantage in the early rounds as he piled up a lead and bulled the Argentinian into the ropes time and again.

But he ran out of gas and a crowd of 15,000 sat stunned as the idol of Japan was chopped to pieces.

Perez, however, shed the only blood spilled in the fight. He bled from a cut over his left eye suffered in the middle of the fight.

Gamblers Fooled

The outcome was a blow to the gamblers. Ringside odds went to 4-1 in Shirai's favor before the opening bell.

The Japanese won his title in 1952 from Dado Marino of Honolulu. He defended it against Marino in a return, Terry Allen of England, and Tanny Campo and Leo Espinosa of The Philippines.

Perez has never been beaten in 24 professional fights. He fought a non-title draw with Shirai in Argentina last July.

'Red Top' Evens Score

Davis Outboxes Bassett, Eyes Crown

By MURRAY ROSE

NEW YORK (AP)— Hartford's Teddy (Red Top) Davis earned a title shot at featherweight champion Sandy Saddler Friday night by cleverly outboxing punching Percy Bassett of Philadelphia in a 12-round elimination bout between the world's leading contenders. Each weighed 126 pounds, the featherweight limit.

Loser of two of three previous decisions to Bassett, the 31-year-old Connecticut veteran evened the count with his 24-year-old rival by scoring a cleancut, unanimous decision in a nationally telecast bout from Madison Square Garden.

The votes, all for Davis, were: Referee Al Berl and Frank Forbes, each 7-4-1 and Judge Arthur Aidala, 8-3-1. The AP had Davis in front, 8-4.

The losingest contender ever to reach a challenger's ranking (his record now is 58-47-2) the poker-faced Davis gave the harder punching Bassett a boxing lesson he'll never forget.

'RED TOP' DAVIS

It was all Davis except for the 4th, 5th, 6th, and 11th rounds when Percy's left hooks and swinging rights to head and body slowed Teddy down.

There was no knockdowns, but it was a brisk fight throughout. Bassett's left eye was half closed at the finish as the result of the steady tattoo Red Top beat on the orb with his ever-flashing left jab.

Native Dancer Horse Of Year; Edges High Gun

NEW YORK (INS) — Native Dancer, Alfred G. Vanderbilt's stretch-running gray colt, nosed out King Ranch's High Gun as "Horse of the Year" Friday night despite a hard-luck season that forced him into retirement after only three races this year.

The four-year-old Dancer received 19 of a possible 33 votes in the 19th annual poll conducted by the Morning Telegraph and Daily Racing Form.

Editors, columnists, handicappers, trackmen and correspondents throughout the country awarded the three-year-old High Gun 11 votes; Andrew J. Crevolin's Kentucky Derby winner, Determine, two votes, and William G. Helis Jr.'s Helioscope, winner of the Nov. 20 Pimlico Special, one vote.

Baltimore Withdraws From NBA

NEW YORK — The Baltimore Bullets Friday night obtained permission from the National Basketball Assn. to suspend operations for the remainder of the 1954-55 season because of financial difficulties.

Under the arrangement, decided at a league meeting Friday, members of the Bullets' roster were distributed among the other eight clubs of the NBA with the Milwaukee Hawks, the club with the poorest record this season now that Baltimore has stepped out, picking up rookie Frank Selvy, currently the league's individual scoring leader.

The decision gave Baltimore officials the opportunity to return to the NBA next season if they obtain sufficient financial backing to operate.

Frank Knox, executive vice-president of the Bullets, requested the joint suspension-and-return action after a dismal early season at the turnstiles. The Bullets had won only 3 of 14 games played this season and had a tight grip on the cellar position in the NBA's Eastern Division.

NU BLASTS RAINBOWS, 50-0

Cornhuskers Find Pot Of Gold At End Of Regular Season Slate

From Press Dispatches

HONOLULU, T.H.—Nebraska's Orange Bowl Cornhuskers concluded their regular season here Friday night, completely overpowering an undermanned University of Hawaii team, 50-0.

Dead game, but no match for the Big Seven's Huskers, the Hawaiian Rainbows dented Nebraska territory only twice, while the visitors from the States racked up seven touchdowns and a pair of PAT's.

Coach Bill Glassford used the Rainbow tilt to give his subs the maximum of work and he constantly shifted personnel.

Longest runs of the evening on Oahu were recorded by Ron Clark, Don Comstock, Willie Greenlaw, and Captain Dirkes Rolston. Clark and Greenlaw made only token appearances, but they added 78 and 50 yard touchdown runs.

The story of the Nebraska victory is clearly presented in the statistics. Nebraska outdowned the Rainbows, 19-7, and rolled for 542 yards on the ground and 106 in the air for an amazing total of 648 total net yards. Hawaii made only 128 yards on the ground and 18 yards through the air.

Solons Honored

Friday night's contest was dedicated to the memory of Hawaii's late delegate to Congress, Joseph R. Farrington, and two senators from Nebraska, Hugh Butler and Dwight Griswold.

The Huskers struck early in the first quarter and never let up.

With the game only about four minutes old, after a pair of backfield-in-motion penalties put the Huskers in a hole, Sophomore Don Comstock cut around his own right end with a pitchout from Dan Brown and sprinted 68 yards to score.

John Edwards booted the point and the Cornhuskers were off to the races.

A minute later, the Huskers recovered a fumble on the Hawaii 27 and three line bucks later, Comstock again tallied to make it 13-0.

The Rainbows couldn't budge the Nebraska defenses, but on the next series of downs the Hawaiians wouldn't let the Cornhuskers move and forced a punt. The ball hit a Rainbow's foot and Nebraska recovered, but Hawaii stopped the Husker threat by recovering a NU bobble on the 20.

Army, Navy Rated Even In Battle Of Offensive Giants

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Army and Navy, the naton's greatest offensive football teams meet today in a game that figures to be so close and unpredictable that even a scoreless tie wouldn't be too big a surprise.

Off the records, it should be an exciting, free-scoring game between two teams that have averaged better than 30 points a game. But the only certainty is that the teams will play their hearts out before some 105,000 spectators in jam-packed Municipal Stadium.

This colorful spectacle always is a sellout, usually before the season opens, and this year the interest has mounted amazingly as the Cadets and Midshipmen have compiled two of the best records in Eastern football.

The fact that the Eastern college championship likely will be decided is a matter of minor importance. This is a game of national appeal, heightened by the fact that it will be televised nationally as the NCAA Game of the Week and broadcast to overseas military and Naval installations as well as in the United States.

The kickoff is scheduled for 12:30 p.m. (CST) but the spectacle starts at noon when the 2,400 grey-clad members of Army's corps of Cadets march into the big stadium. The regiment of Midshipmen, 3,600 strong—hosts for this year's game—will parade in about 20 minutes later. The forecast is cloudy and cool, with afternoon temperatures in the 40's.

For the first time since 1923, there's a possibility that the Army-Navy contest may have a bearing on one of the New Year's Day bowl games. Navy has had feelers from the Sugar Bowl and Cotton Bowl and, while there has been no formal expression, indications are that the attitude at Annapolis is favorable to acceptance. It was learned reliably Friday that a statement probably will be made right after today's game. If Navy should win, or even tie, it might be an acceptance. Navy played Washington in the Rose Bowl after the 1923 season.

Army, winner of seven games since its opening loss to South Carolina, is a slight favorite. The odds-makers put the margin at four points. But there's no obvious reason for this favoritism. They're look-alike teams with explosive speed and almost equal records. Navy has won 6 games and lost 2—by margins of a couple of missed points after touchdowns and by a goal-line fumble.

Army is ranked fifth and Navy sixth in this week's Associated Press poll.

The statistics, admittedly fattened by picking on the same puny opponents, show Army first among the nation's major colleges in total offense and Navy second. On defense Navy is first and Army somewhere down the line. Each team has averaged over 400 yards a game on offense.

Irish Two-TD Choice Over Southern Cal

By JERRY LISKA

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—If Southern California can find any comfort in meeting Notre Dame today it may be in knowing things won't be much rougher in the Rose Bowl against Ohio State.

The Trojans are in the midst of running the gantlet against three of the nation's top four teams in the Associated Press poll.

Unfortunately for Jess Hill's men of Troy, it can be presumed fourth-ranked Notre Dame will try to improve on a 34-0 drubbing handed USC last Saturday by second-ranked UCLA and leave top-ranked Ohio State something to shoot for on New Year's Day.

The Irish last Saturday turned in a peak performance with a 34-18 trimming of Iowa.

Although Notre Dame, a two-touchdown favorite against the twice-defeated Trojans, doesn't end its season until the following Saturday against Southern Methodist, The AP's final poll comes after today's play.

At present, Ohio State, UCLA and Oklahoma rank ahead of once-beaten Notre Dame.

The Irish were riddled by Len Dawson's four-touchdown passing in a 27-14 loss to Purdue Oct. 2. They have defeated Texas, Pittsburgh, Michigan State, Navy, Penn, North Carolina and Iowa. Southern California's other defeat, against eight victories, was a 20-7 upending by Texas Christian.

Southern California's hopes for an upset today are based on speed and squad depth. But such Trojan gallopers as Aramis Dandoy, Lindon Crow and Jon Arnett can't show any more speed than Iowa's Earl Smith and Eddie Vincent, who were well shackled by the Irish.

Despite a lack of reserves, Notre Dame has proved hard to wear down.

Notre Dame has 10 players who have averaged between 40 and 45 minutes per game for eight contests. They are headed by end Paul Matz with 340 minutes, tackle Frank Varrichione with 339 and quarterback Ralph Guglielmi with 336.

Duke After Old Rival

Duke hopes to clinch a spot in the Orange Bowl opposite Nebraska by trouncing old rival North Carolina. The Blue Devils have a 3-0 mark in the Atlantic Conference compared to Maryland's 4-0-1. A committee picks the bowl representative.

Maryland's tremendous exhibition of power, speed and finesse in a 74-13 humbling of Missouri before a nationwide TV audience Thursday kept the Terrapins, No. 10 team, in the running for the Orange Bowl.

The loser in the Orange Bowl voting automatically becomes a hot prospect for the Gator Bowl.

Gator Possibilities

Wichita, which won its first Missouri Valley Conference title Thursday; West Virginia, Auburn, Kentucky and Penn State, No. 19 nationally, are other gator possibilities.

The Rose Bowl, of course, is all set with Ohio State, the nation's top-ranked team, against twice-beaten Southern California. Fourth-ranked Notre Dame, which has beaten USC at South Bend every time since 1939, is expected to do it again Saturday and further tarnish the Trojans' record.

Ohio State and UCLA, the No. 2 team, have finished their regular schedules undefeated. Oklahoma, No. 3, is expected to join them by walloping Oklahoma A&M for the Sooners' 19th straight victory over a two-year span.

UCLA Sooners Idle Jan. 1

Oklahoma already has clinched the Big Seven championship, but is ineligible to return to the Orange Bowl because it played there last Jan. 1. UCLA is out of the Rose Bowl for the same reason.

Even though possible Jan. 1 invitations will not be at stake, the rest of today's games will be just as hard-fought, thanks to traditions which generally are at least as good as "bowl fever" for raising the temperatures of the players.

Around the Nation - Fever

In the East its Holy Cross vs. Boston College and Fordham vs. Villanova. Down South they turn out any how for Tennessee vs. Vanderbilt, Louisiana State vs. Tulane, The Citadel vs. Clemson and Wake Forest vs. South Carolina.

The Southwest has the TCU-SMU alphabetical clash, which doesn't need the Cotton Bowl to generate excitement, plus Texas Tech against Hardin-Simmons.

Wyoming-Arizona and New Mexico-San Jose wind up the Far West excitement for the year.

New York-Oriole Trade Said Still Unfinished

BALTIMORE (AP) — Three Yankee farmhands were reported headed for Baltimore Friday and "five or six" Orioles were said to be bound for New York in what would be the windup of last week's million-dollar deal.

Informed sources said:

1. That third baseman Kal Segrist, pitcher Bill Miller and second Baseman Don Leppert were slated for transfer to the Orioles to complete the first part of the controversial three-for-nine deal.

2. That the deal would wind up a nine-for-nine affair, with five or six Oriole fledglings and farm players going to the Yankees.

Oriole President Clarence W. Miles and Manager-General Manager Paul Richards refused to comment on the reports.

N.Y. Officials Mum

In New York, a Yankee spokesman said he would neither deny nor confirm the three players named as headed for Baltimore. He added, however, that the deal has not yet been completed and would not be "for several more days" when "several waivers are obtained on several players."

When the Yanks-Orioles deal was announced, spokesmen for the two clubs said three more players belonging to the Yankees would be sent to Baltimore "at a later date." The date was not given.

In the million-dollar transaction — biggest in baseball history — the Orioles gave up pitchers Bob Turley and Don Larsen and shortstop Billy Hunter. In exchange they received outfielder Gene Woodling, catcher Hal Smith, catcher-first baseman Gus Triandos, shortstop Willie Miranda, pitchers Harry Byrd and Jim McDonald.

More Players Involved?

Friday night, Lou Hatter, Baltimore Sun Baseball writer, reported he had further learned, from a source in New York, that "the transaction may involve 17 or 18 players, with five or six birds still due the Yanks, before all the paper work on baseball's biggest deal is completed."

These are expected to come from a group of Orioles that includes pitchers Lou Kretlow, who won 6 and lost 11 last season; Mike Blyzka, 1-5, and Frank Fanovich 5-8 at Richmond; catcher Ray Murray, a .254 hitter; catcher Darrell Johnson, .252 at Richmond; first-baseman Dick Kryhoski, .260 and outfielder Jim Fridley, .247.

Baltimore Withdraws From NBA

NEW YORK — The Baltimore Bullets Friday night obtained permission from the National Basketball Assn. to suspend operations for the remainder of the 1954-55 season because of financial difficulties.

Under the arrangement, decided at a league meeting Friday, members of the Bullets' roster were distributed among the other eight clubs of the NBA with the Milwaukee Hawks, the club with the poorest record this season now that Baltimore has stepped out, picking up rookie Frank Selvy, currently the league's individual scoring leader.

The decision gave Baltimore officials the opportunity to return to the NBA next season if they obtain sufficient financial backing to operate.

Frank Knox, executive vice-president of the Bullets, requested the joint suspension-and-return action after a dismal early season at the turnstiles. The Bullets had won only 3 of 14 games played this season and had a tight grip on the cellar position in the NBA's Eastern Division.

Pampas' Perez Wins Flyweight Crown

TOKYO, (Saturday), (AP)—Pascual Perez, a tiny terrier from Argentina, bashed world flyweight champion Yoshio Shirai of Japan into dazed submission last night and became the first man from the land of the Pampas ever to wear a world boxing crown.

The little bull-necked battler, with a whirlwind finish, took boxing's smallest title from the Japanese in a vigorous 15-round outdoor bout in 55-degree weather. Perez was outweighed 101½ to 107¾ and had a five-inch disadvantage in reach. But he packed the stamina and power.

Perez floored Shirai with a vicious left uppercut in the 12th round and battered him around the ring at will in the last four rounds to overcome a substantial early lead by the heavier, rangier Shirai.

"I'm Sorry"—Shirai

Shirai had no excuses. Thoroughly beaten, he told his American manager when the verdict was announced: "I'm very sorry." The manager, Dr. Avlin Cahn, said: "Even a champion must lose sometime."

The decision was unanimous. U.S. Army Maj. Jack Sullivan, referee, scored it 146-139 under Japan's point system. Judge Bill Pachecho of Hawaii had it 143-139. Judge Kuniharu Hayashi of Japan had it 146-134, all for Perez. The Associated Press had it 143-140 for Perez.

A rematch was percolating. Cahn said flatly: "There will be a rematch in Tokyo within six months."

Perez said he would fight Shirai again, "any time, any place, any where.

A Fighting Champion

"I intend to be a fighting champion, and I'll give everyone a chance at the title." He said this included Leo Espinosa of The Philippines, rated Shirai's No. 1 challenger before the fight.

The jubilant winner dashed to a ringside microphone right after his hand was raised and shouted to the crowd:

"I won for Peron. I won for my country. I won for Argentina."

Shirai said he could not focus his eyes on his little fist-slinging opponent after the 12th round knockdown.

"I couldn't see him," he lamented. "Sometimes he would be in focus and sometimes he's fade away."

Bout Jammed With Action

Shirai said an unintentional butt he received in the ninth also bothered him although he wasn't cut.

The bout was jammed with action. The figters threw punches throughout. Shirai, 31, was a stumbling wreck at the end, but Perez, 27, looked fresh.

Shirai used his height and weight margin to advantage in the early rounds as he piled up a lead and bulled the Argentinian into the ropes time and again.

But he ran out of gas and a crowd of 15,000 sat stunned as the idol of Japan was chopped to pieces.

Perez, however, shed the only blood spilled in the fight. He bled from a cut over his left eye suffered in the middle of the fight.

Gamblers Fooled

The outcome was a blow to the gamblers. Ringside odds went to 4-1 in Shirai's favor before the opening bell.

The Japanese won his title in 1952 from Dado Marino of Honolulu. He defended it against Marino in a return, Terry Allen of England, and Tanny Campo and Leo Espinosa of The Philippines.

Perez has never been beaten in 24 professional fights. He fought a non-title draw with Shirai in Argentina last July.

'Red Top' Evens Score

Davis Outboxes Bassett, Eyes Crown

By MURRAY ROSE

'RED TOP' DAVIS

NEW YORK (AP)— Hartford's Teddy (Red Top) Davis earned a title shot at featherweight champion Sandy Saddler Friday night by cleverly outboxing punching Percy Bassett of Philadelphia in a 12-round elimination bout between the world's leading contenders. Each weighed 126 pounds, the featherweight limit.

Loser of two of three previous decisions to Bassett, the 31-year-old Connecticut veteran evened the count with his 24-year-old rival by scoring a cleancut, unanimous decision in a nationally telecast bout from Madison Square Garden.

The votes, all for Davis, were: Referee Al Berl and Frank Forbes, each 7-4-1 and Judge Arthur Aidala, 8-3-1. The AP had Davis in front, 8-4.

The losingest contender ever to reach a challenger's ranking (his record now is 58-47-2) the poker-faced Davis gave the harder punching Bassett a boxing lesson he'll never forget.

It was all Davis except for the 4th, 5th, 6th, and 11th rounds when Percy's left hooks and swinging rights to head and body slowed Teddy down.

Native Dancer Horse Of Year; Edges High Gun

NEW YORK (INS) — Native Dancer, Alfred G. Vanderbilt's stretch-running gray colt, nosed out King Ranch's High Gun as "Horse of the Year" Friday night despite a hard-luck season that forced him into retirement after only three races this year.

The four-year-old Dancer received 19 of a possible 33 votes in the 19th annual poll conducted by the Morning Telegraph and Daily Racing Form.

Editors, columnists, handicappers, trackmen and correspondents throughout the country awarded the three-year-old High Gun 11 votes; Andrew J. Crevolin's Kentucky Derby winner, Determine, two votes, and William G. Helis Jr.'s Helioscope, winner of the Nov. 20 Pimlico Special, one vote.

Juniors Hold Key To Fate Of Cathedral Basketball Squad

By RON GIBSON
Star Sports Staff Member

A large group of promising juniors may hold the key to Cathedral's 1954-55 basketball fortunes.

Only four lettermen, including one regular, return from the 1953-54 team which advanced to the semifinals of its district tournament before dropping out. The team which knocked out Cathedral—Teachers College High—eventually won the Class B championship.

Many of coach Vince Aldrich's promising players are juniors. Right now, the Bluebirds look like they will be a fast, ball-hawking club without exceptional height.

Allen Parks, a good out-shooter, is the only regular returning. Bill Hoeppner, John Koch and Mike Cowan are other lettermen back.

Terry Carey, Bob Sullivan and Bob Everett are other seniors on the squad. Juniors Clarence Woolman, Dick Hakenkamp, Gene Kobza, Larry Kellison, Jim Cripe, Mike Costin, George Pavlas, Ed Patterson and Bill Hartnett form the group from which the remainder of the squad will be chosen.

The Birds will play a difficult schedule which includes 14 games and the Catholic state tournament at Hastings. Cathedral winds up against two of the state's Class B powers—Teachers and Omaha Holy Name.

The Birds will be home eight times, playing their games at Irving gym. The schedule:

Dec. 4—at Omaha Sacred Heart; 7—at Seward Concordia; 10—Norfolk Sacred Heart; 17—at St. Bonaventure of Columbus; 18—Grand Island St. Mary's.

Jan. 5-6-7—at Catholic state tournament (Hastings St. Cecilia); 14—at Hastings St. Cecilia; 21—College View; 29—Omaha Cathedral.

Feb. 1—at Waverly; 5—Omaha St. Joseph; 12—St. Patricks of Fremont, 18—at Omaha Cathedral; 22—Teachers College High; 25—Omaha Holy Name.

Omaha To Start Baseball Ducat Drive—If

OMAHA (AP)—Omaha, within 24 hours after learning its drive for American Association baseball is successful, will launch an all-out campaign for 1955 season ticket pledges.

Plans for the drive were laid this afternoon by business men, who head up a citizens committee for better baseball in Omaha.

Frank Fogarty, president of the Chamber of Commerce, said an announcement was expected Sunday night from the minor league meeting at Houston, Tex., on whether Omaha's bid was successful.

Chamber officials said their plan for ticket pledges would be modeled after the "Kansas City Plan" which resulted in nearly two million dollars in "firm commitments" for American League tickets in four days.

Chamber representatives, who visited Kansas City to learn of its plan said they were impressed with the way it "was directed to the man on the street and challenged persons in the community to rise and be counted."

M. Cooper Smith, president of the Associated Retailers, said full page advertisements Monday would launch the campaign and ask baseball fans to mail in coupons for tickets. The coupons will be available throughout the city.

Omaha has been bidding for the St. Louis Cardinal American Assn. franchise now located at Columbus, Ohio, or for the New York Yankee franchise, which must be moved from Kansas City.

It has been rumored that Omaha stood the best chance to get the St. Louis franchise, since the Cardinals also own the Omaha club in the Class A Western League.

Columbus Move Fails; Baseball Chances Are Slim

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—It looks like this American Association city is going to be without a professional baseball team in 1955.

A move by the city to obtain an option to buy Red Bird Stadium from the St. Louis Cardinals collapsed Friday.

Councilman Jerry Spears Jr., who led the option move, said he will not introduce legislation before City Council Monday since Mayor M. E. Sensenbrenner said last Wednesday he would not sign an option resolution.

Del Starkey, secretary of the Columbus Chamber of Commerce, said Richard Meyer, St. Louis representative who talked to city officials here Wednesday, frankly stated that the Cardinal organization would not field a team here in 1955.

Spears further expressed the opinion the issue has assumed "too many political implications." He said he feels any purchase of the stadium would have to be a co-operative move.

$75,000 Raised By Charleston Man

CHARLESTON, W.Va. (AP)—Walter Crichton Jr., a young investment executive, said he had raised approximately $75,000 after taking a three-day option on the American Association baseball club here Friday.

Crichton, spearheading the "Share-the-Senators" movement, said he hoped to have approximately $125,000 pledged toward purchase of the team by the time the option expires Sunday midnight.

Crichton and Danny Menendez, owner of the Senators, jointly announced the option agreement Friday. Menendez then left to attend the annual meeting of minor league officials in Houston, Tex.

"I feel," said Crichton, "that if we don't raise money immediately for the purchase of the Senators that the club will be sold during the meeting in Houston starting Sunday."

McLaughlin May Have Beef Coming

Gov. Robert Crosby Friday wrote Gov. Edward Arn of Kansas suggesting that the steaks which they put up for the winner of the Hastings-College of Emporia game Thursday be sent to Hastings College Coach Tom McLaughlin.

Each governor put up 24 steaks. Hastings College defeated Emporia, 20 to 14, Thanksgiving Day in the Mineral Bowl game at Excelsior Springs, Mo.

Dana X. Bible Gets Touchdown Award

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Touchdown Club said Friday its annual award "to the individual who has rendered unusual service to football" would be presented for 1954 to Dana X. Bible, University of Texas athletic director.

One of the nation's leading coaches for 34 years, Bible turned out 14 major college conference champions. He produced five at Texas A&M from 1917-1928, six at Nebraska from 1929-1936, and three at Texas, where he coached from 1937-1946. Bible also coached at Mississippi College and Louisiana State. His teams won 209 games, lost 74 and tied 19 during his career.

Bible will receive the award at the Touchdown Club's 22nd annual dinner Dec. 7.

Two Frosh On Varsity

NWU Varsity Lists 12; 41 Cagers Out

Three basketball rosters released by Coach Irv. Peterson at Nebraska Wesleyan University show a total of 41 men out.

Peterson has selected a 13-man varsity unit, a 12-man junior varsity squad and a 16-man freshman roster.

Ten lettermen are included on the varsity listing. Lettermen John Harden has not reported this year; Les Rivers will play with the reserves while he concentrates on his pre-medical course classes and Lefty Hixson will not be eligible until second semester.

Two freshmen — Owen Doeschet and Lowell Johnson — and sophomore Bob Daniels are also on the varsity squad. Peterson said he will suit up 15 men for home games, selecting two players from the "B" team for each contest.

Peterson said an attractive schedule of "B" team games has been arranged for the number two outfit, including home and home series with most Nebraska College Conference foes.

The freshmen will participate as a regular entry in the Lincoln city league and will be scheduled against other Nebraska freshman outfits.

NW Cagers Lead Foes Over Years

Nebraska Wesleyan University is launching its 49th season of basketball competition this winter, and down through the years the Plainsmen hold a healthy advantage over their opponents.

A total of 859 contests have been played over a 48 year span and Wesleyan teams have won 479 for a fat 56 per cent mark while foes have won 380 or 44 per cent.

Over the years Wesleyan teams have tallied 32,280 points for a game average of 37.57 and a seasonal scoring average of 670.83.

Opponents have tallied 29,335 or 34.15 per game and 611.14 per season.

The best Wesleyan seasonal win-loss record was compiled in 1914 when the Plainsmen won 19 straight before dropping their final game to Grinnell, 14-16. The 1953 outfit had the most wins—25 against three defeats. The 1916 team won 20 and lost two; the 1922 club had an 18-2 mark, and the 1954 outfit compiled a 19-5 record.

Beaver Trappers Must Get Permit

Trappers interested in taking beaver are to be reminded to purchase a special beaver permit in addition to their regular trapping permit from their local permit vendors, according to Game Commission spokesman.

Beaver permits cost $5.00 Before any beaver pelts can be sold locally or transported outside the State of Nebraska, they must be sealed by a Conservation Officer who will inspect the pelts personnally.

This is the third consecutive beaver season in recent years and there is no limit on the number of beaver that can be taken.

Juniors Hold Key To Fate Of Cathedral Basketball Squad

By RON GIBSON

Star Sports Staff Member

A large group of promising juniors may hold the key to Cathedral's 1954-55 basketball fortunes.

Only four lettermen, including one regular, return from the 1953-54 team which advanced to the semifinals of its district tournament before dropping out. The team which knocked out Cathedral—Teachers College High—eventually won the Class B championship.

Many of coach Vince Aldrich's promising players are juniors. Right now, the Bluebirds look like they will be a fast, ball-hawking club without exceptional height.

Terry Carey, Bob Sullivan and Bob Everett are other seniors on the squad. Juniors Clarence Woolman, Dick Hakenkamp, Gene Kobza, Larry Kellison, Jim Cripe, Mike Costin, George Pavlas, Ed Patterson and Bill Hartnett form the group from which the remainder of the squad will be chosen.

The Birds will play a difficult schedule which includes 14 games and the Catholic state tournament at Hastings. Cathedral winds up against two of the state's Class B powers—Teachers and Omaha Holy Name.

The Birds will be home eight times, playing their games at Irving gym. The schedule:

Dec. 4—at Omaha Sacred Heart; 7—at Seward Concordia; 10—Norfolk Sacred Heart; 17—at St. Bonaventure of Columbus; 18—Grand Island St. Mary's.

Jan. 5-6-7—at Catholic state tournament (Hastings St. Cecilia); 14—at Hastings St. Cecilia; 21—College View; 29—Omaha Cathedral.

Feb. 1—at Waverly; 5—Omaha St. Joseph; 12—St. Patricks of Fremont; 18—at Omaha Cathedral; 22—Teachers College High; 25—Omaha Holy Name.

Two Frosh On Varsity

NWU Varsity Lists 12; 41 Cagers Out

Three basketball rosters released by Coach Irv. Peterson at Nebraska Wesleyan University show a total of 41 men out.

Peterson has selected a 13-man varsity unit, a 12-man junior varsity squad and a 16-man freshman roster.

Ten lettermen are included on the varsity listing. Lettermen John Harden has not reported this year; Les Rivers will play with the reserves while he concentrates on his pre-medical course classes and Lefty Hixson will not be eligible until second semester.

Two freshmen — Owen Doeschet and Lowell Johnson — and sophomore Bob Daniels are also on the varsity squad. Peterson said he will suit up 15 men for home games, selecting two players from the "B" team for each contest.

Peterson said an attractive schedule of "B" team games has been arranged for the number two outfit, including home and home series with most Nebraska College Conference foes.

The freshmen will participate as a regular entry in the Lincoln city league and will be scheduled against other Nebraska freshman outfits.

The Plainsmen opened their season against Dana college Tuesday night in Ira J. Taylor Physical Education building at 7:30 p.m.

Omaha To Start Baseball Ducat Drive—If

OMAHA (AP)—Omaha, within 24 hours after learning its drive for American Association baseball is successful, will launch an all-out campaign for 1955 season ticket pledges.

Plans for the drive were laid this afternoon by business men, who head up a citizens committee for better baseball in Omaha.

Frank Fogarty, president of the Chamber of Commerce, said an announcement was expected Sunday night from the minor league meeting at Houston, Tex., on whether Omaha's bid was successful.

Chamber officials said their plan for ticket pledges would be modeled after the "Kansas City Plan" which resulted in nearly two million dollars in "firm commitments" for American League tickets in four days.

Chamber representatives, who visited Kansas City to learn of its plan said they were impressed with the way it "was directed to the man on the street and challenged persons in the community to rise and be counted."

M. Cooper Smith, president of the Associated Retailers, said full page advertisements Monday would launch the campaign and ask baseball fans to mail in coupons for tickets. The coupons will be available throughout the city.

Omaha has been bidding for the St. Louis Cardinal American Assn. franchise now located at Columbus, Ohio, or for the New York Yankee franchise, which must be moved from Kansas City.

It has been rumored that Omaha stood the best chance to get the St. Louis franchise, since the Cardinals also own the Omaha club in the Class A Western League.

Columbus Move Fails; Baseball Chances Are Slim

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—It looks like this American Association city is going to be without a professional baseball team in 1955.

A move by the city to obtain an option to buy Red Bird Stadium from the St. Louis Cardinals collapsed Friday.

Councilman Jerry Spears Jr., who led the option move, said he will not introduce legislation before City Council Monday since Mayor M. E. Sensenbrenner said last Wednesday he would not sign an option resolution.

Del Starkey, secretary of the Columbus Chamber of Commerce, said Richard Meyer, St. Louis representative who talked to city officials here Wednesday, frankly stated that the Cardinal organization would not field a team here in 1955.

Spears further expressed the opinion the issue has assumed "too many political implications." He said he feels any purchase of the stadium would have to be a co-operative move.

$75,000 Raised By Charleston Man

CHARLESTON, W.Va. (AP)—Walter Crichton Jr., a young investment executive, said he had raised approximately $75,000 after taking a three-day option on the American Association baseball club here Friday.

Crichton, spearheading the "Share-the-Senators" movement, said he hoped to have approximately $125,000 pledged toward purchase of the team by the time the option expires Sunday midnight.

Crichton and Danny Menendez, owner of the Senators, jointly announced the option agreement Friday. Menendez then left to attend the annual meeting of minor league officials in Houston, Tex.

"I feel," said Crichton, "that if we don't raise money immediately for the purchase of the Senators that the club will be sold during the meeting in Houston starting Sunday."

NW Cagers Lead Foes Over Years

Nebraska Wesleyan University is launching its 49th season of basketball competition this winter, and down through the years the Plainsmen hold a healthy advantage over their opponents.

A total of 859 contests have been played over a 48 year span and Wesleyan teams have won 479 for a fat 56 per cent mark while foes have won 380 or 44 per cent.

Over the years Wesleyan teams have tallied 32,280 points for a game average of 37.57 and a seasonal scoring average of 670.83.

Opponents have tallied 29,335 or 34.15 per game and 611.14 per season.

The best Wesleyan seasonal win-loss record was compiled in 1914 when the Plainsmen won 19 straight before dropping their final game to Grinnell, 14-16. The 1953 outfit had the most wins—25 against three defeats. The 1916 team won 20 and lost two; the 1922 club had an 18-2 mark, and the 1954 outfit compiled a 19-5 record.

Beaver Trappers Must Get Permit

Trappers interested in taking beaver are to be reminded to purchase a special beaver permit in addition to their regular trapping permit from their local permit vendors, according to Game Commission spokesman.

Beaver permits cost $5.00 Before any beaver pelts can be sold locally or transported outside the State of Nebraska, they must be sealed by a Conservation Officer who will inspect the pelts personnally.

This is the third consecutive beaver season in recent years and there is no limit on the number of beaver that can be taken.

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add three. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

DAILY CRYTOQUOTE

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

V X O V X M I I N H U R Z N A L D V V M

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add three. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Reports on our late laminated elections from the fringes of most every place the Marines sing about:

Paris: The more it changes the more it is the same. But every alteration is not an improvement. We owe a debt of gratitude to America. We shall repay it in gratitude.

Formosa: We are confident the switcheroo in Washington will not affect our amicable relations. Clever people, those Democrats.

Tokyo: We signed a peace treaty with the Democrats on the Big Mo in 1945.

Berlin: We demand a recount.

DAILY CRYTOQUOTE

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

A Crytogram Quotation

V X O V X M I I N H U R Z N A L D V V M X N H B V X B A X O I L E B A A M U V X B X M M G — V O Z R M I.

Wheat, Corn Firm; Oats, Soys Weak

CHICAGO (AP)—Firmness in wheat and corn featured dealings in grains in the one-day session sandwiched between the Thanksgiving holiday and the weekend on the Board of Trade Friday.

While these two major cereals pushed their way upward, the rest of the market became highly irregular. Gains were posted everywhere in early dealings. Later, oats and soybeans fell back to around the previous close while rye dropped under Wednesday's finish.

Wheat closed unchanged to ⅞ higher, corn ⅝-1⅝ higher, oats 1 cent lower to ½ higher, rye 1 to 1¾ lower, soybeans ¾ lower to ¼ higher and lard 20 cents lower to 2 cents a hundred pounds higher.

Dry weather in the Southwest continued as a main prop under wheat. This territory received no moisture over the holiday and the Weather Bureau's five-day outlook foresaw little or no precipitation. Moisture is definitely needed in a good part of this winter wheat belt.

A possibility the post-harvest movement of cash corn from farms may be drying up attracted some buying into that grain. Traders thought it might be significant that only 10,000 bushels of corn were purchased on a to-arrive basis from the country. Last Friday the total was 55,000 and the Friday before that it was 60,000.

Trading in soybeans was an erratic affair. The market drew some strength from another advance in bean meal prices, now quoted at $70 to $71 a ton, and news Wales had bought 200,000 bushels. However, traders were cautious because of the large quantity of beans known to be stored back in the country.

Driver Of Fatal Crash Car Has License Revoked

Notice of revocation of his driver's license went out from the state motor vehicle department to Charles L. Williams, Offutt Air Force Base airman named as driver of a car in which three men were killed near Loveland, Ia., on Nov. 20.

A Lincoln airman, Robert D. Rice of 2317 Burlington, was one of the three men killed.

Supervisor Roy Blazek of the financial responsibility department said three speeding offenses and running a stop sign had given Williams 11 points toward revocation before he pleaded guilty at Bellevue Nov. 16 to another speeding charge.

But the court's report on the Bellevue case did not reach the motor vehicle department here until two days after the Iowa accident, so technically he was not under revocation when the Loveland crash occurred, Blazek explained.

A driver whose license is suspended may apply for a new license at the expiration of one year. Then he must furnish proof of financial responsibility for the next three years.

Stocks Advance Toward '29 Peaks

NEW YORK (AP)—A headlong advance in the stock market Friday carried prices up strongly toward the historic peaks of 1929.

Friday's buoyant rise was the most vigorous since Veterans Day. Gains went to between $1 and $3 in many cases, and they pushed on out from there to around $5.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose $1.20 at $147.50. It was ahead 40 cents Wednesday and Veterans Day it gained $1.50.

The average now stands at the highest point since Oct. 11, 1929, when it was $147.90. The historic high for the average occurred on Sept. 3, 1929, when it reached $157.70.

Oils, steels and railroads were in heavy demand Friday. Chemicals were strong. A great number of individual issues joined the rise with explosive gains.

Montgomery Ward made a sensational showing after directors boosted the regular dividend to a $3 annual basis from $2 and increased the yearend extra to $1.75 from $1.50.

Just before the closing bell, the stock reoponed on a block of 20,000 shares, up 3½ at 76. Afterward it was bid at 75¾ and offered for sale at 76⅛.

The Associated Press 60-stock average in advancing 01.20 at $147.50 was pushed up by new highs in its three componenets—industrials up $1.90 at $102.30; railroads up $1.10 at $112.50, and utilities up 10 cents at $66.40.

Volume came to 3,010,000 shares, the tenth straight session of three million or better. Wednesday's total was 3,990,000 shares, greatest in nearly four years.

The American Stock Exchange was mostly higher on 1,110,000 shares as compared with 1,220,000 shares traded Wednesday.

BOND MARKET

NEW YORK (AP)—Treasury obligations declined Friday but the corporate bond market was firm and active.

"Big Board" volume retreated to $5,430,000 par value from $6,900,000 Wednesday, but turnover was still considerably above average. Convertible obligations and many medium-grade issues found strong support. Most invetment quality liens remained steady.

Corporate changes were generally fractions with trading selective.

Consolidation Petitions Are Ruled Invalid

Five school districts in the southeast corner of Lancaster County which sought to consolidate by petition last March will have to start over again.

Four Class I districts, Nos. 20, 28, 44 and 119, and Class II Districts 132 (Panama) petitioned for reorganization into a new Class II district.

But not enough signatures had been obtained in District 20 at that time and the needed additional petitioners were not obtained until November.

State Supt. F. B. Decker has advised Co. Supt. Glenn Turner that the petitions are invalid because:

1. The valuation of the proposed district is only $1,500,000, whereas the valuation at the time of petitioning was stated as "in excess of $1,700,000."

2. Petitions held for a period in excess of eight months would not necessarily reflect the attitude of these districts.

Turner said the valuation drop was the result largely of the county-wide reappraisal which were used in determination of assessed valuations this year.

Decker recommended that if the districts still desire to reorganize that a new set of petitions be circulated.

The districts have been so advised by his office, Turner said.

Parolee, 17, Parks Own Car; Takes One For Joy Ride

A 17-year-old Lincoln youth, who admitted being on parole from the State Industrial School at Kearney, has pleaded guilty in Lancaster County court to a joy riding charge.

Chief Dep. Co. Atty. Elmer Scheele told Judge Herbert Ronin that the youth was arrested by a police officer as he drove a car, belonging to the University Surety Co., from a parking garage at 9th and O.

The youth had parked his own car near the garage, and entered through a window to get the car, Scheele said. Three other teenagers remained in the defendant's car.

The youth offered the court no explanation why he took the car, but said he intended to return it after riding around for awhile.

Judge Ronin told the youth he was not eligible for probation as he had ben paroled twice from Kearney and had previously broken parole.

Sentencing of the youth was suspended pending the disposition of the parole violation by Kearney authorities.

Scheele said the Industrial School authorities indicated they would seek the return the youth on parole violation.

Meet Star Carrier Joseph Sewall

Joseph Sewall, Star carrier salesman for Route 737 between Lake and Calvert and 20th and 27th Streets, receives many compliments for his courteous and efficient service.

Joseph Sewall

Joseph, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Sewall of 2407 So. 19th, is 13 and in the eighth grade at Irving Junior High School.

He makes a $26 profit every four weeks and has wisely put a percentage of it into U.S. Savings Bonds. He also bought a trumpet with his profits and plays in the Irving band.

A member of the Boy Scouts and Boys of Woodmen, Joseph uses his spare time working on a tree house with other boys in the neighborhood, gazing at the stars with binoculars, building model cars and hunting.

As a Star carrier salesman he is receiving valuable business training that he will use in future years.

Any boy who wants a Lincoln Star route should apply at the Star circulation department, 926 P.

13 Die As Jet Hits Mess Hall

LIEGE, Belgium (AP)—Thirteen persons were killed and three injured Friday when a Belgian Thunderjet crashed into headquarters of Bierset Air Force Base here. The pilot of the jet fighter was included in the official list of dead though his body had not yet been recovered.

The officers' mess and the infirmary were destroyed.

Pilot Blasted From Parked Plane, Killed

WASHINGTON (AP)—An Air Force pilot was killed Friday when he accidentally was hurled through the plastic canopy of his jet trainer plane while waiting to take off from nearby Andrews Air Force Base.

The victim was identified as Lt. Col. Glenn E. Davis, 39, of Arlington, Va.

A base spokesman said Davis apparently touched off the ejection mechanism, designed to toss a pilot from the plane in flight in case of emergency.

The spokesman said that in an emergency the pilot shifts a lever that removes the plastic canopy, then operates another lever that ejects him through the open space.

The Air Force official said pilots have ejected themselves through the plastic in flight, and survived. But he added that if Davis had not been killed by the impact against the closed canopy he probably would have been killed by his fall to the ground.

A SPLENDID NEW WAY TO GIVE OLD FITZGERALD

"THE GOLD-COASTER"

A gift so far beyond the commonplace . . . from richly carved separate golden coaster to towering golden stopper . . . and so unique in flavor . . . that we make this suggestion: Remove the labels before you give or serve the GOLD-COASTER, to reveal its full "keepsake" beauty. The character of the whiskey alone (made our costly sour mash way) will identify it as OLD FITZGERALD!

Wheat, Corn Firm; Oats, Soys Weak

CHICAGO (AP)—Firmness in wheat and corn featured dealings in grains in the one-day session sandwiched between the Thanksgiving holiday and the weekend on the Board of Trade Friday.

While these two major cereals pushed their way upward, the rest of the market became highly irregular. Gains were posted everywhere in early dealings. Later, oats and soybeans fell back to around the previous close while rye dropped under Wednesday's finish.

Wheat closed unchanged to ⅞ higher, corn ⅜-1⅜ higher, oats 1 cent lower to ½ higher, rye 1 to 1¾ lower, soybeans ¾ lower to ¼ higher and lard 20 cents lower to 2 cents a hundred pounds higher.

Dry weather in the Southwest continued as a main prop under wheat. This territory received no moisture over the holiday and the Weather Bureau's five-day outlook foresaw little or no precipitation. Moisture is definitely needed in a good part of this winter wheat belt.

A possibility the post-harvest movement of cash corn from farms may be drying up attracted some buying into that grain. Traders thought it might be significant that only 10,000 bushels of corn were purchased on a to-arrive basis from the country. Last Friday the total was 55,000 and the Friday before that it was 60,000.

Trading in soybeans was an erratic affair. The market drew some strength from another advance in bean meal prices, now quoted at $70 to $71 a ton, and news Wales had bought 200,000 bushels. However, traders were cautious because of the large quantity of beans known to be stored back in the country.

Driver Of Fatal Crash Car Has License Revoked

Notice of revocation of his driver's license went out from the state motor vehicle department to Charles L. Williams, Offutt Air Force Base airman named as driver of a car in which three men were killed near Loveland, Ia., on Nov. 20.

A Lincoln airman, Robert D. Rice of 2317 Burlington, was one of the three men killed.

Supervisor Roy Blazek of the financial responsibility department said three speeding offenses and running a stop sign had given Williams 11 points toward revocation before he pleaded guilty at Bellevue Nov. 16 to another speeding charge.

But the court's report on the Bellevue case did not reach the motor vehicle department here until two days after the Iowa accident, so technically he was not under revocation when the Loveland crash occurred, Blazek explained.

A driver whose license is suspended may apply for a new license at the expiration of one year. Then he must furnish proof of financial responsibility for the next three years.

Stocks Advance Toward '29 Peaks

NEW YORK (AP)—A headlong advance in the stock market Friday carried prices up strongly toward the historic peaks of 1929.

Friday's buoyant rise was the most vigorous since Veterans Day. Gains went to between $1 and $3 in many cases, and they pushed on out from there to around $5.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose $1.20 at $147.50. It was ahead 40 cents Wednesday and Veterans Day it gained $1.50.

The average now stands at the highest point since Oct. 11, 1929, when it was $147.90. The historic high for the average occurred on Sept. 3, 1929, when it reached $157.70.

Oils, steels and railroads were in heavy demand Friday. Chemicals were strong. A great number of individual issues joined the rise with explosive gains.

Montgomery Ward made a sensational showing after directors boosted the regular dividend to a $3 annual basis from $2 and increased the yearend extra to $1.75 from $1.50.

The stock sold at 73, up ½. Then trading was halted while members and governors of the New York Stock Exchange sought to bring clamoring buyers and shy sellers together at a price.

Just before the closing bell, the stock reoponed on a block of 20,000 shares, up 3½ at 76. Afterward it was bid at 75¾ and offered for sale at 76⅛.

The Associated Press 60-stock average in advancing 01.20 at $147.50 was pushed up by new highs in its three componenets—industrials up $1.90 at $102.30; railroads up $1.10 at $112.50, and utilities up 10 cents at $66.40.

Volume came to 3,010,000 shares, the tenth straight session of three million or better. Wednesday's total was 3,990,000 shares, greatest in nearly four years.

The American Stock Exchange was mostly higher on 1,110,000 shares as compared with 1,220,000 shares traded Wednesday.

BOND MARKET

NEW YORK (AP)—Treasury obligations declined Friday but the corporate bond market was firm and active.

"Big Board" volume retreated to $5,430,000 par value from $6,900,000 Wednesday, but turnover was still considerably above average. Convertible obligations and many medium-grade issues found strong support. Most invetment quality liens remained steady.

Corporate changes were generally fractions with trading selective.

Consolidation Petitions Are Ruled Invalid

Five school districts in the southeast corner of Lancaster County which sought to consolidate by petition last March will have to start over again.

Four Class I districts, Nos. 20, 28, 44 and 119, and Class II Districts 132 (Panama) petitioned for reorganization into a new Class II district.

But not enough signatures had been obtained in District 20 at that time and the needed addiional petitioners were not obtained until November.

State Supt. F. B. Decker has advised Co. Supt. Glenn Turner that the petitions are invalid because:

1. The valuation of the proposed district is only $1,500,000, whereas the valuation at the time of petitioning was stated as "in excess of $1,700,000."

2. Petitions held for a period in excess of eight months would not necessarily reflect the attitude of these districts.

Turner said the valuation drop was the result largely of the county-wide reappraisal which were used in determination of assessed valuations this year.

Decker recommended that if the districts still desire to reorganize that a new set of petitions be circulated.

The districts have been so advised by his office, Turner said.

Parolee, 17, Parks Own Car; Takes One For Joy Ride

A 17-year-old Lincoln youth, who admitted being on parole from the State Industrial School at Kearney, has pleaded guilty in Lancaster County court to a joy riding charge.

Chief Dep. Co. Atty. Elmer Scheele told Judge Herbert Ronin that the youth was arrested by a police officer as he drove a car, belonging to the University Surety Co., from a parking garage at 9th and O.

The youth had parked his own car near the garage, and entered through a window to get the car, Scheele said. Three other teenagers remained in the defendant's car.

The youth offered the court no explanation why he took the car, but said he intended to return it after riding around for awhile.

Judge Ronin told the youth he was not eligible for probation as he had ben paroled twice from Kearney and had previously broken parole.

Sentencing of the youth was suspended pending the disposition of the parole violation by Kearney authorities.

Scheele said the Industrial School authorities indicated they would seek the return the youth on parole violation.

13 Die As Jet Hits Mess Hall

LIEGE, Belgium (AP)—Thirteen persons were killed and three injured Friday when a Belgian Thunderjet crashed into headquarters of Bierset Air Force Base here. The pilot of the jet fighter was included in the official list of dead though his body had not yet been recovered.

The officers' mess and the infirmary were destroyed.

Pilot Blasted From Parked Plane, Killed

WASHINGTON (AP)— An Air Force pilot was killed Friday when he accidentally was hurled through the plastic canopy of his jet trainer plane while waiting to take off from nearby Andrews Air Force Base.

The victim was identified as Lt. Col. Glenn E. Davis, 39, of Arlington, Va.

A base spokesman said Davis apparently touched off the ejection mechanism, designed to toss a pilot from the plane in flight in case of emergency.

The spokesman said that in an emergency the pilot shifts a lever that removes the plastic canopy, then operates another lever that ejects him through the open space.

The Air Force official said pilots have ejected themselves through the plastic in flight, and survived. But he added that if Davis had not been killed by the impact against the closed canopy he probably would have been killed by his fall to the ground.

—FEDERAL PRISON—

Third Man Is Accused

. . . In Remington's Death

LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP)—A third convict — only 17 — Friday was charged with the murder of convicted perjurer William Remington of Lewisburg Federal Prison on which Alger Hiss quits in a matter of hours, a parolee whose freedom will be restricted.

Lewis Cagle

The 50-year-old Hiss, like Remington, was convicted of perjury in testimony he gave during investigations of the Communist conspiracy in the United States.

Remington, one-time aid in the Commerce Department, died in the prison hospital on Wednesday from a savage beating at the hands of three fellow prisoners now accused by the FBI of murder. He was struck on the head with a brick wrapped in a sock. The assault was committed in Remington's dormitory room.

The attack, coming so soon before the time set for Hiss' release, the two were somehow connected. But acting Warden Fred T. Wilkinson said he found no good reason for so thinking.

Cut To 3½ Years

Good behavior reduced Hiss' sentence from five to three and one-half years.

Wilkinson said Hiss, former high-ranking State Department assistant, spent his last day in prison in routine fashion. He turned in his drab clothing, the odds and ends he won't need in the outside world.

"Just as in the military," Wilkinson said, "there is a lot of this checking out to be done."

The charging of the third convict, Lewis Cagle Jr., of Chattanooga, Tenn., provided the first clue as to possible motive for the attack on Remington.

Norman H. McCabe, special agent in charge of the Philadelphia office of the FBI, said Cagle admitted that he and two other convicts "planned to ransack Remington's room on Nov. 22 and the assault took place while there in his—Remington's room."

The others, George Junior McCoy, 34, Grundy, Va., and Robert Carl Parker, 21, Washington, D.C. were charged with murder the day Remington die.

Juvenile Delinquent

McCabe said that Cagle was assigned to Lewisburg penitentiary after his conviction in December, 1952, under the federal Juvenile Delinquency Act. Both McCoy and Parker are serving three - year terms for transporting stolen automobiles across state lines.

"I certainly can see no evidence that someone sat down and planned to kill inmate Remington as a protest against the release of inmate Hiss," Wilkinson told a newsman.

The prison head termed "a lot of hogwash" reports that groups of prisoners were going around "looking for Communists," but added:

"You might run into hoodlums or crackpots here the same as in any big city."

No Elaboration

Wilkinson said he doubted that robbery was the sole motive for the killing of Remington but he would not elaborate.

Hiss is expected to be met at the prison gate by his wife, Priscilla, and their 13 - year - old son. They will motor to their New York home, probably accompanied by Hiss' lawyer, Chester Lane.

Wilkinson said Hiss' release will follow normal routine. Hiss will breakfast at the prison and be checked out by several departments, including the commissary and the library. Then he will be escorted through two big gates into the open. He is expected to be released between 8:30 and 9 a.m. EST.

4 Youths Plead Guilty In Auto Parts Burglary

Four Lincoln youths have pleaded guilty in Lancaster District Court to charges filed in connection with the Nov. 14 burglary of Singer Auto Parts at 2000 N.

Albert W. Tritsch, 18, 2501 Griffith, and Jack R. Schlegelmilch, 19, of 6122 Ballard, were charged with breaking and entering.

Harold Dudley Webb, 20, of 1220 Oak, and a 17-year-old youth were charged as accessories after the fact, having knowledge of the felony and unlawfully concealing same from authorities.

Dep. Co. Atty. Elmer Scheele said Tritsch and Schlegelmilch entered the building from the roof and the other two boys had remained in the car.

Boy Governor Receives Award

Ejner Jensen of Omaha (left), governor of the Nebraska Hi-Y youth and government model legislature, is presented the Charles F. Mangold Memorial Award by Warren H. Parker of Lincoln. This was the fourth annual award presented to the boy governor in memory of Mangold, secretary of the first youth and government program in the West Central area. Parker is chairman of the city-wide boys work committee of the Lincoln YMCA. More than 125 persons gathered for the annual governor's banquet and dance Friday night following the first day's session of the model legislature. (Star Photo.)

Anderson Urges Increased Interest In Government

Victor E. Anderson, governor-elect, spoke briefly Friday at the Nebraska Hi-Y model legislature holding the fourth annual session here.

"More people should take an interest in and understand our government procedures," Anderson said in praising the youth for their interest. "I have no worry over our form of government if officials tell the people the truth and the facts."

He compared government to an automobile, pointing out that one missing spring in the carburator will prevent the car from starting and warned that no level of government can fail without tumbling the whole structure.

White Gives Address

In another short address to the young office holders, Walter W. White, publisher of The Lincoln Star, stated that "practicing democracy is not merely a matter of warm heart and good spirit.

"The generous impulse is a fine starting point but a desire to do good may easily go astray unless it is directed by adequate knowledge of the forces that shape our daily history. I stress this point because the fact is that we, as a nation, are not too well informed."

White told the youths that there is a necessity for constant study. Because this country has outstanding newspapers and other media of information, he said, is not necessarily proof that the public is the best informed of all people.

Elect Officers

The more than 100 delegates to the government program elected Ejnar Jensen, Omaha, governor; Dan Farrington, Alliance, lieutenant-governor; Robert Nelson, Hastings, speaker, and Bill Schultz, Lincoln, chief justice of the supreme court.

The members introduced 21 bills for consideration which were heard by committees during the afternoon. Final action will be taken on them after discussion at the Saturday sessions. They range all the way from abolition of the death penalty to an intelligence test for motor vehicle operators.

Skids Appear To Be Greased For Yoshida

. . . Tokyo Stocks Dip

TOKYO (Saturday) (AP)—A falling stock market appeared today to have brought a new—and well-bankrolled—force into Japan's political crisis.

Tokyo business leaders were reported working behind the scenes for the resignation of Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida. They were said to favor a Conservative coalition cabinet headed by Ichiro Hatoyama, longtime Yoshida rival, but including members of Yoshida's Liberal (Conservative) party.

Business leaders are understood to feel this is the only way to stave off dissolution of the Diet and new, costly general elections. Threat of this has pushed the stock market down the past two days.

Cabinet Would Quit Too

Under the reported business leader plan, both Yoshida and his cabinet would quit; Liberals and the new Democratic party, also conservative, would elect Hatoyama prime minister; Hatoyama's new cabinet would include Liberals and Yoshida's deputy prime minister, Taketora Ogata, would retain his job.

Hatoyama, a founder of Yoshida's Liberal party, led 121 Conservative anti-Yoshida members of the lower House into the new Democratic party this week and was named its president.

Yoshida's party leaders then recommended that he relinquish his party's presidency to Ogata, keep the premiership, dissolve the Diet before a nonconfidence motion can be taken up, and force new general elections.

Tokyo business leaders, like Tokyo newspapers and many political observers, believe it is only a matter of a short time until Yoshida is out as premier, one way or another.

Yoshida is being criticized by his political foes as tying himself too closely to the United States. Hatyoama, while favoring continued alliance with the West, wants diplomatic relations with Red China and Russia in the interest of bolstering trade.

Archeology Meet Told That Indians Want Equal Status

American Indians seem to be directing their efforts toward achieving an equal, though minority, status within the dominant society, Fred W. Voget of the University of Arkansas said here Friday.

Voget was one of the speakers at a session on ethnology and social anthropology at the 12th annual Great Plains Conference for Archeology at the University of Nebraska.

The Indians, Voget said, seem to be directed toward the preservation of their racial and cultural identity. He compared this Indian movement to the situation of the American Negro since Negroes were freed from slavery.

About 80 persons are attending the conference, held annually for the exchange of information on recent research.

Stevenson Has Best '56 Chance, Kefauver Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn) said Friday that "as of now it looks as though Adlai Stevenson had the best chance" of winning the Democratic presidential nomination in 1956.

Stevenson, former governor of Illinois, won the nomination two years ago after Kefauver led in the early balloting at the party convention.

While Kefauver said Stevenson seems to have the best chance of capturing the nomination in 1956, he added in an interview that it isn't possible to say what the situation will be two years from now.

He said Stevenson would have "some difficulties" to overcome, such as being out of office and lacking a forum for the expression of his views.

Kefauver himself is not a candidate for president in 1956, he said, and has no plans to be one. He added, however, that, "I don't think one can ever say with finality what may happen in the future."

State's Engineer Is 'Noncommittal' About Omaha Job

OMAHA (AP) — Mayor John Rosenblatt said Friday he had asked State Engineer L. N. Ress to consider a job in Omaha if he decided to quit the state but Ress was "noncommittal."

"He did promise to check with us if he should give up his position in Lincoln," Rosenblatt said.

The mayor said he would like to hire Ress for about $14,000 a year to head all city engineering. He said Ress would be used chiefly as a planner of city development, along the lines suggested by Public Improvements Commissioner William E. Milner.

There has been talk that Ress would leave his state job because the $8,500 salary cannot be raised now under the law.

Woman Injured As Car Topples

Lincoln Star Special

BEATRICE, Neb. — A 15-year-old Table Rock youth was uninjured in Gage County's only holiday traffic accident, but a passenger in the automobile involved received multiple cuts and bruises about the head.

Injured was Mrs. Margaret Bedea of Table Rock, mother of Gary Nedea, 15, driver of the car.

According to Sheriff Ned Maxwell, young Bedea's car went out of control near Virginia on State Highway 4 after Bedea had slowed down for a truck to turn off of the highway. When the driver started up, he hit loose gravel and the car swerved across the road and overturned down an embankment, the sheriff said.

—FEDERAL PRISON—

Third Man Is Accused

...In Remington's Death

LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP)—A third convict—only 17—Friday was charged with the murder of convicted perjurer William Remington of Lewisburg Federal Prison on which Alger Hiss quits in a matter of hours, a parolee whose freedom will be restricted.

Lewis Cagle

The 50-year-old Hiss, like Remington, was convicted of perjury in testimony he gave during investigations of the Communist conspiracy in the United States.

Remington, one-time aid in the Commerce Department, died in the prison hospital on Wednesday from a savage beating at the hands of three fellow prisoners now accused by the FBI of murder. He was struck on the head with a brick wrapped in a sock. The assault was committed in Remington's dormitory room.

The attack, coming so soon before the time set for Hiss' release, the two were somehow connected. But acting Warden Fred T. Wilkinson said he found no good reason for so thinking.

Cut To 3½ Years

Good behavior reduced Hiss' sentence from five to three and one-half years.

Wilkinson said Hiss, former high-ranking State Department assistant, spent his last day in prison in routine fashion. He turned in his drab clothing, the odds and ends he won't need in the outside world.

"Just as in the military," Wilkinson said, "there is a lot of this checking out to be done."

The charging of the third convict, Lewis Cagle Jr., of Chattanooga, Tenn., provided the first clue as to possible motive for the attack on Remington.

Norman H. McCabe, special agent in charge of the Philadelphia office of the FBI, said Cagle admitted that he and two other convicts "planned to ransack Remington's room on Nov. 22 and the assault took place while there in his—Remington's room."

The others, George Junior McCoy, 34, Grundy, Va., and Robert Carl Parker, 21, Washington, D.C. were charged with murder the day Remington die.

Juvenile Delinquent

McCabe said that Cagle was assigned to Lewisburg penitentiary after his conviction in December, 1952, under the federal Juvenile Delinquency Act. Both McCoy and Parker are serving three-year terms for transporting stolen automobiles across state lines.

"I certainly can see no evidence that someone sat down and planned to kill inmate Remington as a protest against the release of inmate Hiss," Wilkinson told a newsman.

The prison head termed "a lot of hogwash" reports that groups of prisoners were going around "looking for Communists," but added:

"You might run into hoodlums or crackpots here the same as in any big city."

No Elaboration

Wilkinson said he doubted that robbery was the sole motive for the killing of Remington but he would not elaborate.

Hiss is expected to be met at the prison gate by his wife, Priscilla, and their 13-year-old son. They will motor to their New York home, probably accompanied by Hiss' lawyer, Chester Lane.

Wilkinson said Hiss' release will follow normal routine. Hiss will breakfast at the prison and be checked out by several departments, including the commissary and the library. Then he will be escorted through two big gates into the open. He is expected to be released between 8:30 and 9 a.m. EST.

4 Youths Plead Guilty In Auto Parts Burglary

Four Lincoln youths have pleaded guilty in Lancaster District Court to charges filed in connection with the Nov. 14 burglary of Singer Auto Parts at 2000 N.

Albert W. Tritsch, 18, 2501 Griffith, and Jack R. Schlegelmilch, 19, of 6122 Ballard, were charged with breaking and entering.

Harold Dudley Webb, 20, of 1220 Oak, and a 17-year-old youth were charged as accessories after the fact, having knowledge of the felony and unlawfully concealing same from authorities.

Dep. Co. Atty. Elmer Scheele said Tritsch and Schlegelmilch entered the building from the roof and the other two boys had remained in the car.

Taken were $23, a dual intake, and cylinder heads, according to police.

Judge Harry Spencer deferred sentencing and ordered the youths held in the county jail pending an investigation by the adult probation officer.

Notice to Bidders

Sealed bids will be received at the office of the Board of Control, State Capitol, Lincoln 9, Nebraska, on Nov. 29, 1954 until 10:30 o'clock A.M., and at that time publicly opened and read for furnishing MEAT for the period of December, 1954.

All requirements pertaining to purchase as set forth by NEBRASKA LAW and all rulings of procedure as established by order of the Board of Control, are a part of the Notice to Bidders. Specifications, Proposal Blanks and information may be secured at the office of the Board of Control, State Capitol, Lincoln 9, Nebraska.

Boy Governor Receives Award

Ejner Jensen of Omaha (left), governor of the Nebraska Hi-Y youth and government model legislature, is presented the Charles F. Mangold Memorial Award by Warren H. Parker of Lincoln. This was the fourth annual award presented to the boy governor in memory of Mangold, secretary of the first youth and government program in the West Central area. Parker is chairman of the city-wide boys work committee of the Lincoln YMCA. More than 125 persons gathered for the annual governor's banquet and dance Friday night following the first day's session of the model legislature. (Star Photo.)

Anderson Urges Increased Interest In Government

Victor E. Anderson, governor-elect, spoke briefly Friday at the Nebraska Hi-Y model legislature holding the fourth annual session here.

"More people should take an interest in and understand our government procedures," Anderson said in praising the youth for their interest. "I have no worry over our form of government if officials tell the people the truth and the facts."

He compared government to an automobile, pointing out that one missing spring in the carburator will prevent the car from starting and warned that no level of government can fail without tumbling the whole structure.

White Gives Address

In another short address to the young office holders, Walter W. White, publisher of The Lincoln Star, stated that "practicing democracy is not merely a matter of warm heart and good spirit.

"The generous impulse is a fine starting point but a desire to do good may easily go astray unless it is directed by adequate knowledge of the forces that shape our daily history. I stress this point because the fact is that we, as a nation, are not too well informed."

White told the youths that there is a necessity for constant study. Because this country has outstanding newspapers and other media of information, he said, is not necessarily proof that the public is the best informed of all people.

Elect Officers

The more than 100 delegates to the government program elected Ejnar Jensen, Omaha, governor; Dan Farrington, Alliance, lieutenant-governor; Robert Nelson, Hastings, speaker, and Bill Schultz, Lincoln, chief justice of the supreme court.

The members introduced 21 bills for consideration which were heard by committees during the afternoon. Final action will be taken on them after discussion at the Saturday sessions. They range all the way from abolition of the death penalty to an intelligence test for motor vehicle operators.

Skids Appear To Be Greased For Yoshida

...Tokyo Stocks Dip

TOKYO (Saturday) (AP)—A falling stock market appeared today to have brought a new—and well-bankrolled—force into Japan's political crisis.

Tokyo business leaders were reported working behind the scenes for the resignation of Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida. They were said to favor a Conservative coalition cabinet headed by Ichiro Hatoyama, longtime Yoshida rival, but including members of Yoshida's Liberal (Conservative) party.

Business leaders are understood to feel this is the only way to stave off dissolution of the Diet and new, costly general elections. Threat of this has pushed the stock market down the past two days.

Cabinet Would Quit Too

Under the reported business leader plan, both Yoshida and his cabinet would quit; Liberals and the new Democratic party, also conservative, would elect Hatoyama prime minister; Hatoyama's new cabinet would include Liberals and Yoshida's deputy prime minister, Taketora Ogata, would retain his job.

Hatoyama, a founder of Yoshida's Liberal party, led 121 Conservative anti-Yoshida members of the lower House into the new Democratic party this week and was named its president.

Yoshida's party leaders then recommended that he relinquish his party's presidency to Ogata, keep the premiership, dissolve the Diet before a nonconfidence motion can be taken up, and force new general elections.

Tokyo business leaders, like Tokyo newspapers and many political observers, believe it is only a matter of a short time until Yoshida is out as premier, one way or another.

Yoshida is being criticized by his political foes as tying himself too closely to the United States. Hatyoama, while favoring continued alliance with the West, wants diplomatic relations with Red China and Russia in the interest of bolstering trade.

Archeology Meet Told That Indians Want Equal Status

American Indians seem to be directing their efforts toward achieving an equal, though minority, status within the dominant society, Fred W. Voget of the University of Arkansas said here Friday.

Voget was one of the speakers at a session on ethnology and social anthropology at the 12th annual Great Plains Conference for Archeology at the University of Nebraska.

The Indians, Voget said, seem to be directed toward the preservation of their racial and cultural identity. He compared this Indian movement to the situation of the American Negro since Negroes were freed from slavery.

About 80 persons are attending the conference, held annually for the exchange of information on recent research.

Stevenson Has Best '56 Chance, Kefauver Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn) said Friday that "as of now it looks as though Adlai Stevenson had the best chance" of winning the Democratic presidential nomination in 1956.

Stevenson, former governor of Illinois, won the nomination two years ago after Kefauver led in the early balloting at the party convention.

While Kefauver said Stevenson seems to have the best chance of capturing the nomination in 1956, he added in an interview that it isn't possible to say what the situation will be two years from now.

He said Stevenson would have "some difficulties" to overcome, such as being out of office and lacking a forum for the expression of his views.

Kefauver himself is not a candidate for president in 1956, he said, and has no plans to be one. He added, however, that, "I don't think one can ever say with finality what may happen in the future."

State's Engineer Is 'Noncommittal' About Omaha Job

OMAHA (AP) — Mayor John Rosenblatt said Friday he had asked State Engineer L. N. Ress to consider a job in Omaha if he decided to quit the state but Ress was "noncommittal."

"He did promise to check with us if he should give up his position in Lincoln," Rosenblatt said.

The mayor said he would like to hire Ress for about $14,000 a year to head all city engineering. He said Ress would be used chiefly as a planner of city development, along the lines suggested by Public Improvements Commissioner William E. Milner.

There has been talk that Ress would leave his state job because the $8,500 salary cannot be raised now under the law.

Billions—For The Right Projects

LATIN LOANS READY

QUITANDINHA, Brazil (AP) — The United States told Latin American nations Friday the World Bank and the U.S. Export-Import Bank have billions of dollars waiting to be loaned if her southern neighbors present sound projects.

Andrew Overby, assistant secretary of the U.S. Treasury, opposed as "impractical and illusionary" a proposal to fix a minimum of one billion dollars yearly as a goal for Latin American economic development, with the United States the biggst contributor.

He spoke as the big debate erupted in a half dozen subcommittees of the Inter-American Economic Conference on the question of whether the United States is giving enough economic help and price supports to the southern hemisphere.

Can't Peg Prices

As for price guarantees, the United States, through Willis Armstrong of the State Department, reiterated its stand that is own economy could not enable it to peg prices for everything the world produces.

Just before Overby spoke, delegates applauded President Arturo Maschke of Chile's Central Bank when he urged the American nations to set up a new Inter-American bank to finance economic development south of the Rio Grande.

"An Inter-American banking system," Maschke said, "would be an efficient and specific mechanism to help Latin America's economic development and aid its inhabitants to realize their justifiable desire for better living conditions."

Advance Refused

The United States has refused to advance any money for this venture, leaving the southern countries to back the proposed bank with their own estimated financial reserves of 3½ billion dollars.

Without mentioning it by name, Overby said there is no need for such a proposed hemisphere bank and added:

"We are glad to hear discussions of any projects our sister nations wish to bring before the conference, but there is no lack of funds available for economic projects in Latin America.

"The Export - Import Bank alone has nearly two billion dollars uncommitted and the World Bank has additional funds.

"We are prepared to approach loan applications in a constructive and generous attitude and think our deeds speak for themselves. We believe also that in the future there will be a full realization of the true value of what we are doing and will continue to do in this field."

2 Inmates Say They've Served Their Time

Two Nebraska Penitentiary inmates have filed in Lancaster District Court application for writs of habeas corpus alleging their minimum legal sentences have expired.

Warden Herbert Hann has been ordered by Judge Harry Spencer to show cause on Dec. 6 on the writs of the two inmates, Byron G. Helzer and Albert Larsen.

Helzer states he was given a four-to-seven year sentence Sept. 5, 1950 from Fillmore County on a burglary charge. Sentenced to the State Reformatory, he was later transferred by the Board of Control to the Penitentiary, his petition alleges.

The inmate claims his minimum legal sentence with good time expired Oct. 5, 1953, and that he is being illegally detained in prison.

The other inmate, Albert Larsen states he was sentenced Feb. 10 from Custer County on an insufficient fund check charge to one-to-two years. His petition alleges the sentencing judge had knowledge he had been previously convicted and his legal minimum sentence with good time expired No. 26, 1954.
